15TH YEAR. NO 218

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., MONDAY, FEB. 26, 1900.

TWO CENTS

STEYN IS FOR PEACE

Both He and Botha Urge Kruger to Sue.

HOFMEYER MAY PROPOSE TERMS.

Republics to Retain Absolute Independence, but to Disarm—If England Refuses, Then to Ask Cape Dutch to Rebel. The Above Rumored.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—The Lourenzo Marques correspondent of The Times says: The feeling in official circles at Pretoria borders on consternation. Gen. Louis Botha and President Steyn are urging President Kruger to sue for peace. At Bloemfontein General Cronje's position is regarded as hopeless.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—In about a fortnight the congress of the Afrikaner bond will meet, and it is rumored that Mr. Hofmeyer will then propose peace terms on the basis of the republics retaining absolute independence, but offering to disarm. If these terms are rejected, it is understood that a manifesto will be issued to the Dutch throughout South Africa calling upon them to throw off their allegiance to Great Britain.

Probably these rumors are exaggerated, but there is no doubt that the greatest anxiety prevails in Cape Town regarding coming events.

Germany, through the semi-official Berliner Post, reiterates that all reports of German intervention are quite without foundation.

GEN. CRONJE SHORT OF AMMUNITION.

British Captured a Position Which May Prevent Reinforcements Reaching Him.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—A dispatch to The Morning Post from Kimberley, dated Friday, says: General Cronje is reported to have plenty of provisions, but to be running short of ammunition. Mr. Rhodes is extremely hopeful that the war has reached its concluding stage.

PAARDEBURG, Orange Free State, Feb. 26.—General Cronje's position is more hopeless than ever. Our guns dominate the sloping ascents from the river on all sides and by the rush of the Shropshires on Wednesday night up the river bed the Boers lost 200 yards space in their cover.

Deserters say the British fire has been very deadly and affirm that General Cronje himself is willing to surrender, but is overborne by the young Boers from the Transvaal.

There are women and children with the Boer force. General Roberts proposed to let them pass out of danger, but this suggestion, as well as the proffer of medical aid, has been rejected.

The kopje captured by the British last Wednesday, when 50 prisoners were taken, is a most important strategic position. Its possession should enable us to repulse any Boer reinforcements from the eastward.

THE BRITISH BLUNDERED.

Bivouacked Near Boer Lager and Terrific Fusillade Followed—Casualties Practically None.

PAARDEBURG, Orange Free State, Feb. 26.—The fourth day of General Cronje's fine defense opened in startling fashion. Soon after dawn a most terrific rattle of rifle fire broke out, waking the sleeping camp. It was the heaviest fire during the war, and all awaited with forboding the news of its effect.

It soon developed that the Gloucesters and Essexes had lost their way and had bivouacked, in error, close to the Boer lager, on the north side of the river. As soon as they were perceived by the enemy the latter fusilladed. Wonderful to tell the British casualties were practically none.

There was desultory firing all day long on both the north and south banks, General Knox's brigade holding and pushing forward the line south of the river, while General Smith-Dorrien, on the north side, worked toward the lager. Meanwhile General French advanced, in a far easterly direction, near a kopje held by a strong force of Cronje's men, reinforced by a Ladysmith contingent. At the same time General Broadwood's brigade, with a battery of horse artillery, took up positions to the left and rear of the same kopje.

The front of the hill was thoroughly searched by a raking fire. Suddenly the Boers bolted from every side toward General French, who headed toward the drift, shelling vigorously. A great number escaped, but many were killed by shrapnel, and about 40 were captured.

As soon as the kopje was evacuated, this correspondent visited it. The position was found to be wonderfully strong naturally and to form the real key to the position in the case of defense against Boer reinforcements advancing from the east.

Our first contact with the Ladysmith Boers was singularly unfortunate for them. A great deal of forage, provisions and equipment was captured, and the kopje was frequently dotted with blood, showing that many wounded had been removed.

The Boer method of removing their dead is to tie a couple of reins to the body, which is thus dragged off by two horsemen at full gallop.

PARTIES OF BOERS REPULSED.

They Had Arrived From Natal, to Reinforce Cronje.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—3:35 p. m.—The war office published a dispatch from Lord Roberts containing the following:

PAARDEBURG, Feb. 24.—12:20 p. m.—Parties of Boers recently arrived from Natal attacked our outposts in force, yesterday. They lost a good many killed and wounded and nearly 100 prisoners, including a commandant and three field cornets. Our casualties were 4 officers wounded, 9 men killed, 23 men wounded, 2 missing. On the 21st and 22d 1 officer and 13 men were wounded.

Six men were wounded yesterday by hollow nosed Mauser bullets. The nickel case is slit with four slits, making the projectile of the most expansive and explosive nature possible. A wounded Boer brought to our hospital yesterday had 60 of these bullets in his pockets.

During the advances at Kimberley the casualties were: Officers, 2 killed, 13 wounded; men, 4 killed, 78 wounded.

CAPTAIN MONTMORENCY KILLED.

Scouts Driven Back by Boers, Whom They Found Near Molteno.

STERKSTROOM, Feb. 26.—A reconnaissance in force under General Gatacre, with eight guns, found the Boers occupying a ridge three miles beyond Molteno, in the Stormberg direction.

Montmorency's scouts charged the Boers, who crept round the scouts' flank, pouring in a deadly fire. The scouts were finally compelled to retire, having lost heavily. Fourteen are missing. Captain Montmorency was killed.

The reconnaissance was valuable and would have been most satisfactory had it not been for the unfortunate disaster to the scouts with whom Lieutenant Colonel Hoskier happened to be. Their loss was four killed and many wounded and missing.

AGUINALDO WAS RELEASED.

Army Officers, Had the Leader, but Failed to Recognize Him.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—There is a story in circulation among some of the army officers, who have just arrived from Manila, that the army actually captured Aguinaldo in Cavite province, put him in jail for 15 days as a suspicious amigo, and then released him, only to hear of his identity after he had gotten away.

Because of the similarity of feature and figure of the Tagals, the Americans have had great difficulty in distinguishing one individual from another, in telling friend from foe.

The ability of the Philippine leader to make up as a Chinaman, or "Chino," as they are called in the Philippines; is said to be remarkable, and only a fellow native is able to penetrate such a disguise.

Bribery Charges Caused Squabble.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., Feb. 26.—Several of the eight councilmen who voted for the resignations and arrest of Councilmen O. J. Reed, E. O. Zurn, William Repard, Thomas Holl and William Zimmerman, announced that if the citizens did not prosecute the bribery charges against the accused members they would resign rather than serve with men alleged to be bribers. Councilman Zimmerman threatens to sue for $20,000 damages against his accusers if they institute proceedings.

THRUST BY SCHRUMAN

Attacks the Plan For Porto Rican Tariff.

AGAINST THE PRESIDENT'S WISH.

Says It Is Opposed to Every Man's Sense of Justice—Republicans Failed to Agree on the Bill, at a Conference Held in Washington.

DETROIT, Feb. 26.—President Jacob G. Schurman, of the first Philippine commission, in an interview here, talking of the proposed Porto Rican tariff bill, said in part:

"Should the present congress adopt a tariff for Porto Rico against the recommendations of the commissioners and of the president and against every man's sense of justice and generosity, the orators of the Democracy can say with truth during the next campaign that the trusts went down to Washington and grappled the Republican party by the throat and made it choke to their advantage."

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—A long conference was held at the residence of Representative McCall, of Massachusetts, between the committee appointed at the Republican conference Saturday night, representing the Republicans in favor of the pending Porto Rican tariff bill, and a committee agreed upon by those Republicans who are opposed to the measure.

Propositions pro and con were made by both sides, but none of those made on behalf of the advocates of the pending bill amounted to an abandonment of the principles of the measure, viz.: the right of the United States to levy a tariff on imports from Porto Rico, and as its opponents consider this their fundamental objection to the measure, no agreement could be reached. After the conference, opponents of the bill said there was no probability of another gathering before the conference of Republicans called for tonight. From their statements, it was evident they intended to maintain the position they have held all along, that under the constitution the government has no right to tax the products of territory under control of the United States.

VOTE ON QUAY CASE.

Believed It Will Be Reached This Week. Other Matters to Be Considered.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—The time of the senate during the present week will be divided between the questions of the finances, the government policy toward the insular possessions and the seating of Senator Quay upon the nomination of the governor of Pennsylvania.

The Hawaiian bill remains the unfinished business, subject to removal at any time by the Quay resolution and also by the conference report upon the currency bill.

Senator Aldrich has given notice that he will make a speech in explanation of the currency bill agreement on Wednesday and that he will call it up the next day (Thursday) and then ask final action upon it. The request of course will lead to a spirited contest, to many sharp speeches and to the final adoption of the report by practically the same vote by which the bill originally passed the senate.

The matter may be before the senate for several days.

There will be several speeches during the week on the Quay resolution and there is a probability of reaching a vote on it the latter part of the week. Senator Chandler probably will speak for Mr. Quay today and Senator Turley in opposition. Later in the week Senators Hoar and Penrose will talk for Mr. Quay and Senator Burrows in opposition. After these only short speeches will be heard. Senator Penrose says he will make an effort to have the discussion confined to the morning hour so as not to interfere with other questions before the senate, but that if a disposition to delay the vote should become apparent he will then press the Quay matter. He counts upon a vote late in the week and says he expects a larger vote than was cast in Mr. Quay's favor in taking the resolution up.

When the Hawaiian bill is voted upon the Porto Rican will be taken up. Senator Depew probably tomorrow will speak on the problems connected with the Philippine islands.

One Perished Near Elyria, O., and Another in Pittsburg—Victims of Accidents.

CLEVELAND, Feb. 26.—The temperature here was near the zero mark and a fierce gale from the northwest blew all day. During most of the day snow fell also. Cars on the street railway lines were operated with difficulty. The storm was general throughout Northern Ohio, and in several places very low temperature was recorded, the minimum at Youngstown being 14 degrees below zero.

A wealthy farmer named Matthew Lattimer, 72 years old, was frozen to death while walking a half mile to his home near Elyria, O.

Y. M. C. A. CONVENTION.

The Pennsylvania Association Meeting Adjourned at Williamsport—The Closing Services.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Feb. 26.—The last meeting of the Y. M. C. A. convention took place last night. The meetings of Sunday began at 9 o'clock a. m., when Dr. Pierson delivered his last address. His subject was "Holiness and Service." The meeting was a big one. The largest meeting of the day occurred at 3:30 in the afternoon. A long list of speakers took part. At the same hour a women's meeting was held in the First Presbyterian church. The Bloomsburg Male chorus sang, and services calculated to interest and aid women were conducted.

In the Association hall the boys' meeting was held. The meeting was of such a nature that the youth was instructed in the principles of the association and its work, without finding it tiresome or disagreeable in any way.

At the farewell service, which was held in the Association hall, the delegates circled about the room and joined hands while they all sang the hymn which has been so popular through the convention, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds."

IN MEMORY OF NEWMAN.

The Services Held in the Metropolitan Church, Washington—President McKinley Attended.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—At the Metropolitan Methodist Episcopal church, Sunday, Bishop John F. Hurst preached a memorial sermon at a special service held in honor and remembrance of Bishop John P. Newman.

Notwithstanding the wind and cold the auditorium was filled to the doors. President McKinley was an interested auditor. Bishop Newman served the Metropolitan church for two terms.

FIVE DEAD, TWO HURT

Train Struck a Carriage Near Geneva, N. Y.

VICTIMS WERE ALL OF ONE FAMILY.

One of the Injured Said to Have Been Fatally Hurt and the Other Badly Burned—Howling Gale Prevented Hearing the Train.

GENEVA, N. Y., Feb. 26.—The midnight express on the Lehigh Valley railroad struck a carriage containing seven persons, at Tuttle's crossing, about 25 miles east from Rochester, instantly killing five of the occupants, fatally injuring another and badly bruising the other. All were members of a family.

The Dead.

Bert Smith, 23 years old.
Miss Miranda Smith, 24 years old.
Glee Smith, 14 years old.
Catherine Smith, aged 8 years.

The Injured.

Gardner Smith, 21 years old.

Before reaching the crossing, the carriage was stopped and Mr. Smith listened for the train, but did not hear it in the howling gale. The horses had just crossed the track in safety when the engine of the express crashed down upon the carriage and its occupants.

Gardner Smith, who was the least injured, crawled to a station nearby and secured assistance.

The bodies of Mrs. Smith and her daughter Miranda were carried for a mile on the cow catcher of the engine.

The body of the little girl and her two little brothers were found near the scene of the accident.

The services were held in Zion Lutheran church, of which the dead soldier was a member. The funeral oration was delivered by Rev. Dr. Peschau, who was followed by Chaplain Hunter, who paid a glowing tribute to the military career of the dead.

Armbrust and Stevens, whose military funeral will occur today, at Jeanette, under the direction of his comrades of Company L, were of one age, only 19 years. Both were killed the same week, nearly a year ago, and in the last engagement of the regiment.

FATAL FIGHT AT A DANCE.

One Man Killed, a Number Hurt at a Moonshiner's Cabin.

WHITESBURG, Ky., Feb. 26.—Near Pound's Gap, during a dance at the home of Bill Mullins, a Virginia moonshiner, pistols and knives were used in a scrimmage. John Newberry was shot and died within two hours. Ed Newberry, his brother, was fatally wounded. Luella, the 16-year-old daughter of Mullins, was stabbed three times with a dirk and cannot recover. Mrs. Mullins was severely bruised and a man named Keller, of Dickinson county, was shot in the knee.

Mullins has been arrested and taken to the county jail at Clintwood, where he is under a heavy guard to prevent a lynching, which has been threatened by friends of the Newberry brothers.

J. E. McDonald Is Back of the Deal--News of Chester and Vicinity.

The little hamlet of Georgetown four miles north of Chester is to have a boom, and very soon, if the present plans of some men are carried out. Within the past two weeks men from Wheeling and Pittsburg have spent considerable time about Georgetown leasing coal lands and oil territory. James E. McDonald is working up the matter, and so far his work has been successful although it is just in its infancy. The Wheeling parties are after the oil territory while the coal lands are being leased by Pittsburg parties. It is not likely that any actual work will be done until the advent of spring. Matters have progressed so far that the promoters of the boom feel confident that Georgetown will enjoy a boom that will be long lived.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O. MONDAY, FEB. 26.

FOR PRESIDENT--Second Term.
WM. McKINLEY,
of Ohio.

OUR CANDIDATES.

The primary has come and gone. The battle was a hot one, and every inch of the battle field was warmly contested. W. O. Davidson won out in the race for mayor by a safe margin. T. V. Thompson had votes to spare in the contest for marshal. A. J. Johnson, Davidson's closest competitor, is out in a card thanking his backers, and will doff his coat and work like a Trojan for the success of his victorious competitor and the whole ticket. Willis Davidson made a superb fight, and won second place in the struggle for the nomination of marshal. Willis smilingly bows to the fiat of fate, and says that T. V. Thompson and the entire Republican ticket shall have his warm support. This is as it should be, and every candidate who was in the fight will make friends by acting in the same manner. The nominations for council are all right. In fact, the entire ticket is one which the opponents of the Republican party and nominees cannot hope to beat or defeat. The untirred are whistling to keep their courage up, and boasting that they have a good chance for victory at the coming election. With a united front, unity in the party and a pull altogether, we can afford to laugh at all such pretensions. The indications are that East Liverpool will give an increased Republican majority on Monday, April 2.

THE NEW COUNCIL.

How It Will Stand If the Republican Candidates Win Out at Election.

If the Republican nominees win at the election the new city council will be made up as follows:

First ward--Harvey McHenry and R. O. Heddleston.
Second ward--J. T. Smith and O. D. Nice.
Third ward--George Peach and S. J. Cripps.
Fourth ward--F. L. Fisher and D. M. McLane or G. W. Ashbaugh.
Fifth ward--R. J. Marshall and John N. Arnold.

Japan's Children.

From one end of Japan to the other a child is treated as a sacred thing. be it one's own or a stranger's. Each one carries its name and address on a ticket round its neck, but should it indeed stray from home food and shelter and kindness would meet it anywhere.

Mrs. Gilmore, wonderful soprano, Grand, March 1.

DAVIDSON FOR MAYOR.

Thompson Wins for Marshal and Gaston Defeats McGarry for Solicitor--Hanley, McCarron and Beardmore Winners.

Heddleston for Council in First Ward, Nice in Second, Cripps in Third, and Marshall and Arnold in Fifth--McLane and Ashbaugh Tied for Council in Fourth.

Full Returns of Saturday's Primaries.

ELECTION ECHOES.

The church vote failed to stand by Christian Metsch.

'Twas a bad day for those who are careless as to casting their ballots at any time.

Willis Davidson made a splendid showing for the limited time he was in the field.

Tim. Thompson's vote was a rouser from Rousertown.

Reark made a strong bid for the berth of township clerk, but could not overcome Hanley's following.

Badgley and Davidson split the opposition to Tim Thompson in the fight for marshal.

Johnston and Gaston votes seemed to amalgamate, coalesce, and stem the tide side by side.

Another "surprise party" was the battle between McLane and Ashbaugh, in the Fourth ward.

Beardmore came on deck, as usual with a heavy vote, although Mack Anderson gave him a struggle for the place.

McCarron was successful in landing the justice of the peace plum.

Young Heddleston surprised the knowing ones. Garner had been slated to win out, but the goods could not be delivered.

Burgess made a splendid showing and in a very quiet manner.

Bryan swung his votes into line in great shape.

McGarry made a splendid up hill fight against the councilmanic members whom he had offended. He has no need to be ashamed of his magnificent battle. He did not have a single worker out.

Gaston can congratulate himself on his unexpected success. The sports were backing McGarry to win.

The surprise of the occasion was the vote given to Gilbert.

H. P. McCarron won the right to ladle out justice by a majority of 67 over L. W. Carman. Total vote, 2,053.

James N. Hanley had 503 majority over Reark in a total vote of 2,258.

Joseph Beardmore was renominated by a majority of 563 over Matthew Anderson for township trustee. Total vote, 2,099.

Davidson, for mayor, carried five precincts, Burgess two and Johnston two.

Thompson carried all but one precinct, the second of the Fourth which was carried by Badgley.

Hanley carried every precinct.

Bryan carried every precinct.

Gaston, for solicitor, carried six precincts, McGarry two, and one, the first of the Third was a tie. In the second of the Fourth, Gaston won by one vote.

The East End was where Gaston got four-fifths of his majority.

McCarron for justice carried six of the nine precincts. In the second of the Fourth McCarron won by one vote.

Carman's own ward, the Fifth, gave him almost four to one.

Beardmore for trustee carried every precinct but the Fifth ward, where Anderson beat him eight votes.

R. O. Heddleston for council in the First carried both precincts, the first by three votes and the second by 46, majority over Garner, 49.

O. D. Nice carried the first precinct of the Second ward for council by 44 which was only cut down five by Bosson's majority in the second precinct, leaving Nice a winner by 89 majority.

S. J. Cripps carried both precincts in the Third, the first by 66 and the second by 111, making his majority, 177, over August Freymark.

In the Fourth ward G. W. Ashbaugh, retiring councilman, and D. M. McLane tied with 193 votes each. Michael McGeever had 101. Ashbaugh carried the first precinct by a plurality of 29.

over McLane, who carried the second precinct by exactly the same plurality over Ashbaugh.

In the Fifth ward R. J. Marshall, retiring councilman, was renominated at the head of the list with 133 votes, five votes more than John Arnold with 128, who was also nominated, there being two to elect. James W. Jameson polled 79 votes, Marshall beating him 54 votes and Arnold 49 votes.

The total vote cast for mayor was 2,437. W. O. Davidson's plurality over Johnson was 171. The winner polled something more than a third of all the votes cast.

For marshal T. V. Thompson won with a plurality of 319 over Willis Davidson in a total vote of 2,414 for that office.

Street Commissioner Bryan was renominated by the record majority of 1,283. Total vote for that office, 2,245.

W. K. Gaston defeated M. J. McGarry for city solicitor by 55 votes. The total vote for solicitor was 2,109.

There was no contest for the job of assessor except in the Third ward and here Henry Deitz defeated J. O. Allison by a vote of 248 to 169. The assessors in the other wards are: R. L. McKenty, Sylvester Kinsey, W. H. Gaston and Grant McDade.

THE NEW SCHOOL BOARD.

How It Will Be Made Up If the Republican Nominees Are Elected.

The new school board will be made up as follows if the Republican nominees are elected: W. B. Hill, J. O. Taggart and J. H. Smith holdovers, and O. O. Vodrey, G. O. Murphy and L. O. Williams, old members, and W. E. Wells, new. The last four were nominated Saturday.

Master Haydn Stephens, famous solo soprano, Grand, March 1.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

"The Irish Alderman."

It has been suggested that the front of the city hall be painted green, as a delicate, artistic and vernal compliment to Hon. Richard Carroll, "The Irish Alderman" from New York, who is to speak at the Grand tonight.

"What Happened to Jones."

William Gillette has given us a versatile and accomplished liar in "Too Much Johnson," but for cold blooded and artistic falsehood the hero of that sterling farce is not in it for a moment with the drummer Jones, in Broadhurst's "What Happened to Jones," which comes to the Grand Tuesday evening, Feb. 27.

"A Man of Mystery."

Hypnotism is a form of sleep or somnambulism brought on by artificial means, in which there is an unusual suspension of some powers, and an unusual activity of others. This peculiar condition is employed in the new melodrama, "A Man of Mystery," which is to be presented at the Grand, Wednesday evening.

Daniel Webster's Paper Cutter.

Joseph M. Terry of Peconic, N. Y., has presented a valuable relic of Daniel Webster to the Suffolk County Historical society. It is an ivory paper cutter which Mr. Webster used for a number of years in his library at Marshfield, Mass. Webster gave it to Charles Taylor, then a boy, whose father was at the time manager of Mr. Webster's farm. Young Taylor preserved the relic and several years ago while residing near Mr. Terry's house gave it to him.—New York Sun.

THE TELEPHONE GANG

Had a Fight In the Porter Block Saturday Afternoon.

ONLY ONE MAN WAS ARRESTED

And He Said He Had Nothing to Do With the Scrap Except to Get Hit on the Jaw. Mayor Rough Fined Him $6.00, and the Rest of the Gang Are Still Missing.

For some time there has been a jealousy existing between the cable men and linemen of the new telephone company, and the affair finally ended in a fight Saturday afternoon.

The cablemen make more money than the linemen, and have been in the habit of throwing it up to the linemen. Saturday was pay day, and after some of the employees had filled up on bad whisky they lined up in front of the office of the company in the Porter block. One man began declaring himself, and said he could whip any man in 10 states. Nobody disputed his assertion, and the gang filed up stairs when a free for all fight started. The patrol was called, but before it arrived the gang had succeeded in breaking the glass in one of the doors and severely bruising one man. When the patrol got to the scene the only man they could find was William Carlisle, the rest of the crowd having escaped by means of the back door. Carlisle was hauled to city hall and put up security for his appearance this morning. He claimed he was an innocent party, but had arrived at the scene of the conflict in time to get hit on the jaw. The mayor fined him $6.00.

A SPECIAL ELECTION.

Fourth Ward People Will Probably Get Another Chance to Cast Their Ballots.

There will probably be a special election in the Fourth ward to settle the tie between D. M. McLane and George W. Ashbaugh, candidates for council. The law does not permit the candidates to settle the matter by a toss and neither of them favor settling it that way, any how. The Republican central committee will meet this week when there will be some action taken in regard to the case.

Mr. Steltzner, superb violinist, Grand, March 1.

WILLIS DAVIDSON

Has Good Words For the Voters Who Stood By Him and Will Hustle For the Ticket.

"I have no growling to do and no complaints to make against any of my competitors in the nice little battle which was waged at the Republican primary on Saturday last. I made the fight warm for the leader, T. V. Thompson, and did my level best, in a square contest, to defeat him. 'Timmie' carried the longest pole and of course captured the persimmons. I congratulate him warmly, and will do my level best in assisting to elect him at the coming election. I am a Republican all the way through, and shall battle for the success of my party and its nominees on the 2d day of April, 1900. To the men who honored me with their ballots, I return my most sincere thanks.

Respectfully,
WILLIS DAVIDSON

Soldiers of Fortune.
"It is embarrassing to meet former cotillion partners as elevator boys and waiters," said a European lady now visiting New York. "It has been my fate to undergo and inflict this unhappiness several times.

"I went to a fashionable hotel on my arrival. Wearing his hotel livery with the same grace as he had borne his officer's uniform when I last saw him and danced with him at a state ball in a foreign capital, was a man I had known. He colored to the eyes as he saw me, but made no sign, nor did I.

"The same thing has happened since at restaurants, at other hotels, in riding academies and in carriages. Some day M. le Baron de Trois Etolles and Graf von Truemmer-Schloss will appear in European society with new éclat and full purses. Will I ever say that I know where they made their money? Why, of course not. It is a far cry from America to Europe, and in their own country these gentlemen have an irreproachable social position. I have really already forgotten the names of those I have seen, I assure you."—New York Mail and Express.

Goldsmith.
Not long before the close of Goldsmith's life he produced the brilliant and humorous lines of "Retaliation." Varied accounts are given of the origin of this poem. It will be remembered that in a joke Garrick wrote the following couplet as an epitaph for Goldsmith:

Here lies Nolly Goldsmith, for shortness called Noll.
Who wrote like an angel, but talked like poor poll.

It was on April 4, 1774, that Goldsmith died. The precise spot where he was buried in the Temple churchyard is unknown.

This is Johnson's summing up of the character of Goldsmith: "He had raised money and squandered it by every artifice of acquisition and folly of expense. But let not his frailties be remembered; he was a very great man."—William Black's "Life of Goldsmith."

BROUGHT BACK OLD TIMES.

A Tidbit That Was Not on the Restaurant Bill of Fare.

The force of childhood recollections and the truth of the quotation, "A touch of nature makes the whole world akin," were shown graphically by a little incident in a restaurant the other day. A quiet looking, middle aged man of prosperous appearance was eating his dinner when another well dressed man took a seat opposite him. After giving his order in a bluff, genial manner the newcomer took a sip of water and faced around. Suddenly a queer expression came over his face as he watched attentively the actions of his vis-a-vis, and apparently without realizing what he was doing he blurted out in a loud tone, "Well, well, well!"

Every one at the table, including the quiet looking man, started, and the others, observing the direction of the speaker's gaze, turned their eyes also upon him of the quiet appearance to see what had caused the exclamation.

The man who had come in first was in the act of spreading sugar over a slice of buttered bread, and when he realized that all eyes were turned upon him he blushed like one detected in a heinous crime and almost fell off his chair. It took him a minute or two to recover, and then he said to the table in general:

"I used to get bread and butter and sugar for being good when I was a child, and eating it is a habit which I like to indulge in even yet. I know it isn't upon the restaurant bill of fare, but I couldn't resist the temptation."

"I must beg your pardon for my rude exclamation," replied the other man. "My mother used to put bread and butter and sugar in my lunchbox when I went to school as an 8-year-old up in the country town where I was raised, and I haven't eaten any since my childhood, and I guess I'll join you in a piece now for the sake of old times." And he did.—Bangor Whig.

CASHING DRAFTS ABROAD.

Easy Banking Methods Which Cause Americans Much Surprise.

"The continental banking methods are a great surprise to Americans," said a resident of New Orleans who has just returned from a trip abroad. "When I was in Paris last month, I met a friend one day who had an English draft for £100 on one of the largest banks in the city and wanted to get the money. He had nobody to identify him, but said, half jokingly, that he was going to try for it any how, and we went to the place together."

"We were shown up stairs to a large reception room set aside especially for customers, and presently a messenger came in and took the draft. About a dozen other people were also waiting in the room, and after a delay of about ten minutes a well dressed young gentleman came to the door and bawled out in a loud voice, 'Mr. John Smith! My friend (call him John Smith for short) got up and was handed a bundle of bank notes. No questions were asked."

"I was astonished, and in going out I took occasion to ask the well dressed young gentleman whether the bank wasn't taking desperate chances doing business in that catch as catch can fashion. 'And why?' he inquired, opening his eyes. I tried to explain, and he shrugged his shoulders. 'We have never had any losses,' he said."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Greatest Knitters In the World.

All the women of Shetland knit. They learn the art in early childhood and continue it all through their lives. The wool used for their knitting is grown on the islands and is carded and spun by the people themselves. Machinery they have not except the primitive spinning wheel. Many of the most elaborate shawls have taken months to make and some even years, so that a very fine shawl may be worth as much as $150 or $200. Most of the knitting is, however, of the more homely and serviceable kind and may be bought from the women themselves for a very moderate price.

The manner in which the washing of knit shawls is accomplished in Shetland is a matter of interest to most visitors. They are washed carefully in soap lather, and then to prevent their shrinking they are faced from point to point of the scalloped border in a large square wooden frame and placed outside the cottage to dry.—Chicago News.

Why?

"Why," asks the New York Press.

"Should Hartford be the center of insurance in this country instead of New York? Why should Boston be the center of the copper industry? There is no copper within 1,000 miles of the Hub. Why should a majority of our shoes be made at Lynn?"

"We can understand why Pittsburg should be the center of the iron industry, sitting as she does in the heart of the ore and coal region, but why should she make nearly all our glass when there is better sand elsewhere? Why is Providence the great jewelry making city?"

A Tragedy of Mont Blanc.

The story of the destruction of the baths of St. Gervais at the foot of Mont Blanc, in 1892, is told in "The Annals of Mont Blanc." This was one of the calamities that could scarcely have been predicted or averted.

Owing to the stoppage of the subglacial drainage, in some way never ascertained, a lake was formed under the Tete Rousse glacier, in which an enormous body of water was pent up at a spot 10,000 feet above the sea level. Between 1 and 2 o'clock on the night of July 12, 1892, the ice that had held the lake gave way.

The water swept in a torrent of tremendous force over the Desert de Pierre Ronde, gathering up thousands of tons of rock and stones in its course. It passed with a terrific roar under the hamlet of Bionnassay, which it did not injure, destroyed half the village of Bionnay on the highroad between Contamines and St. Gervais and, tearing up trees as it went along, joined the main river of the Bon-Nant.

Following the river bed and destroying on its way the old Pont du Diable, it hurled its seething flood of water, timber, stones and mud upon the solid buildings of the St. Gervais baths and crushed them into fragments. Then crossing the Chamonix road, it spread itself out in the form of a hideous sea over the valley of the Arve, destroying part of the village of Le Fayet in its way.

Such was the catastrophe of St. Gervais which claimed over 150 victims. Utter ruin was everywhere. The once lovely gardens of the baths were now or six feet deep in mud and the once been snapped like reeds and enormous blocks of stone were strewn over the dreary waste.

She Decided to Remain.

"I will," she exclaimed. "I will not live with you another day!"

"You leave me, will you?" he calmly asked.

"Yes, I will."

"When?"

"Now—right off—this minute."

"You'll go away?"

"Yes, sir."

"I wouldn't if I were you."

"But I will, and I defy you to prevent me. I have suffered at your hands as long as I can put up with it."

"Oh, I shan't try to stop you," he quietly replied. "I'll simply report to the police that my wife has mysteriously disappeared. They'll want your description, and I will give it. You wear No. 7 shoes; you have an extra large mouth; you walk stiff in your knees; your nose turns up at the end; eyes rather on the squint; voice like a—"

"Wretch! You wouldn't dare do that!" she screamed.

"I certainly will, and the description will go in all the papers."

They glared at each other a moment in silence. Then it was plain to be seen he had the dead wood on her.—Columbus Journal.

His Great Work.

A Chicago man who has written a book was telling about it the other day to a friend who had once done him a service.

"By the way," said the author, "I would be delighted to give you a copy of my work, if you care for it."

"I should be more than pleased to have it," was the reply. "Especially if you will write your name in it."

"All right. There is a bookstore just around the corner. If you will accompany me, we will go there and get it. I don't happen to have a copy in my office just now."

After they had stopped to glance at some of the new things in the bookstore the author hailed a clerk and, pushing his chest out very far, asked for the novel that he had written.

"Yes, sir," the clerk said. "We have it around here somewhere, I believe, but you are the first one who has ever asked for a copy, and it may take me some time to find it. Wouldn't something else do just as well? We have a great many better books at the same price."—Chicago Times-Herald.

FACTS ABOUT SARDINES.

The Greater Part of This Country's Consumption Now Packed Here.

Formerly the sardines consumed in this country were all imported from France. Now about three-quarters of the sardines eaten in the United States are put up here, the chief center of the sardine industry in the United States being the eastern coast of Maine, though some sardines are now put up on the coast of California. The packing of sardines in this country was begun about 1886.

Thousands of people now find employment in one part and another of the work in catching fish, in making cans and in canning and packing and marketing and so on.

Sardines are put up in greater variety than formerly, there being nowadays sardines packed in tomato sauce, sardines in mustard, spiced sardines and so on, but the great bulk of sardines, both imported and domestic, are still put up in oil. Sardines are put up also in a greater variety of packages than formerly, there being, for example, various sizes and shapes of oval tins, and some French sardines are imported in glass, but as the great bulk of all sardines are still put up in oil, so the great bulk of them are still put up in the familiar flat boxes, the great majority of these being of the sizes known as halves and quarters and far the greater number of these being in quarters. Sardines are packed 100 tins in a case, and the consumption of sardines in this country is roughly estimated at from 1,500,000 to 2,000,000 cases annually.

Like canned goods of every description, sardines are cheaper now than they formerly were, and American sardines are sold for less than the imported. American sardines are now exported from this country to the West Indies and to South America.—New York Sun.

CHOCOLATE FIENDS.

There Are Those Who Become Slaves to This Nerve Soothing Food.

"The manufacture of chocolate," said J. R. Anso of Brazil, "is a great industry. Of all the chocolate beans imported into the United States two-thirds go to one firm in Boston, and the other third is distributed among the other manufacturers. The chocolates sold are of various grades. The Caracas chocolate is supposed to be the best."

"If you take the various grades, technically known as the Caracas, the French, the German and so on, and take a piece of each and place them in a pan of water and allow them to dissolve, any expert will tell you which is the best chocolate. The better grades will leave no sediment. The others will. This is explained by the fact that in the cheaper grades the shell is ground up and used as a 'filler.' The lighter the chocolate the better the grade. The cheaper grades are dark owing to the ground up shell."

"It is a queer thing about chocolate consumption. There are chocolate fiends, just as there are opium fiends, tobacco slaves and liquor slaves. I cannot tell you why it is, but if people begin to eat chocolate the habit grows upon them. I don't think any amount of chocolate hurts any person. Of course the cheaper grades of chocolate have a large percentage of sugar in them, and sugar is to a certain extent injurious, but for the chocolate itself I don't think any one eats enough to hurt him materially. In contradistinction to the exhilaration of alcoholic drinks chocolate seems to be a soothing. Persons who are nervous and irritable find it a food that in a way calms and soothes and satisfies them. It is queer, but it is the truth. The consumption of chocolate is increasing enormously in the United States."—New York Tribune.

Artificial Diamonds.

It is well known that in the manufacture of carbon steel microscopic diamonds are formed, and the curious fact is stated by The Scientific Press that from the examination of a number of steels from a variety of processes identical results were given. A piece weighing 300 grams was cut from a lump of steel and treated with nitric acid, the insoluble residue collected being mainly graphic carbon. After being washed with water it was boiled three times with fuming nitric acid, which partially dissolved the residue, hydrofluoric acid and then fuming sulphuric being used, there then remaining nothing but graphite, which after being washed, was melted with chlorate of potash. The insoluble residue obtained fell to the bottom of a vessel filled with iodide of methylene, the little transparent octahedrons visible through a microscope, which burned on a sheet of platinum without any ash, being the diamonds.

He Could Shoot Straight.

Said the man who had traveled: "Years ago in a western frontier town a traveler, footsore and weary, arrived one afternoon and made his way down the one street of the burg. He was suddenly startled by the sounds of shots, and, looking up, discovered four men shooting at one another. The men were standing at the four corners of an imaginary square, and each was shooting at the man catcorner to him. Being in what he supposed a safe position, he paused to watch the outcome of the fray, when a bullet, going wide of its intended mark, cut by his ear. That roused his wrath, and, drawing his pistol, he dropped the man in his tracks who had all but dropped him. Another bullet flying wide from its mark, but near to the stranger, caused him to lay out one of the other pair, and the two remaining men sought safety in flight. In that particular town duels had been previously comparatively harmless amusements, owing to the poor marksmanship of the contestants, but the man who could shoot had arrived, and the inhabitants, although they turned out to greet him in a body and grant him the freedom of the city, did so in manifest awe and trepidation."

"Whenever he told the story afterward, he used to wind it up impressively by saying, 'And, boys, in that town after that they went around me as if I had been a swamp.'"—New York Tribune.

Conquered the Professor.

The mighty Jowett of Oxford invited a student to walk with him. After they had been on the road for about 30 minutes the pupil finally spunked up courage and remarked, "Nice day, professor."

"Do you really think so?" was the faraway answer of Jowett.

Another half hour passed, and the boy stammered out:

"Nice road, professor."

The teacher responded, "Do you really think so?"

The matriculate began to boil in his bones and to get even more frightened, but he managed to again blurt out, "Clouds seem to be filling up with rain, professor," to which the answer was:

"Do you really think so?"

The two returned to the college ground, and the professor said, "Well, young man, we have been walking for several hours, and everything you said has been as stupid as it possibly could be."

His companion replied, "Do you really think so?"

The professor looked at the young man a moment. Then he smiled and grasped his hands warmly. From that time on conversation never flagged during their walks.—Saturday Evening Post.

Puzzled the Porter.

The pet fad of a certain actress is shoes, and she never travels without a pair of shoe trees in her satchel. One season she was touring the west. When she went to bed in the Pullman the first night eastward from Butte, she took off her trim walking boots and, as her custom is, slipped the trees into them and set them under the edge of the berth. It was broad daylight when she was awakened by the respectful and somewhat awestricken voice of the porter. She drew the curtains aside and looked out into the aisle. The porter was standing there, holding the shoes in his hand.

"Here they is, lady," he said.

"Well, just put them down under the berth, please," said she. The man hesitated a moment.

"Can you—can you put them on by yourself?" he asked.

"What, the shoes?" asked the lady.

"No, miss," answered the porter. "I means your feet. Ain't these yere things feet?"

Since then she has carried the ghastly looking boot trees in her trunk.—Washington Post.

Doubling His Joy.

"Young man," said the girl's father, "do you realize that in asking for my daughter's hand in marriage you are asking me to give up my only child?"

"Excuse me, sir," replied the young man, "but you are evidently laboring under a misapprehension. I propose to come and live with you after we are married, and you will then have two children instead of one. Now, what more could you ask?"—Chicago News

CRONJE'S SPACE CUT DOWN.

The Shropshires Managed to Take 200 Yards From Him Had to Crawl on Ground Into Trenches.

PAARDEBERG, Orange Free State, Feb. 25.—Artillery shelling continued during the early part of Wednesday night. As soon as the last gun was fired the Shropshires, who had been occupying the river bed since Sunday, rushed forward, seized an additional 200 yards of near ground and entrenched a fresh position before daybreak. At dawn General Cronje found himself docked that amount of space. The Shropshires had done excellent work under a galling fire since Sunday and they were relieved by the Gordons.

The exchange of positions had its amusing features, in spite of the danger. The Gordons crawled on their stomachs to the trenches and the Shropshires crept out of these by actually reaching over the Gordons.

The scene of the last five days' fighting is one of the prettiest spots in South Africa. The river at the point where General Cronje is ensconced and fighting for life resembles some parts of the Hudson river, the ground all around sloping toward the stream. All the highlands are covered by the British artillery.

Cronje is faced in the front and rear from both banks by the British, while General French's horse, far away on the flanks, prevents a sudden inrush of Boers.

General French has sent in 75 prisoners. A British patrol, eight miles to the west, discovered 30 Boers wandering away and corralled them. Already this force has captured 46 of the enemy, while many dead Boers have been seen.

The Boer prisoners are all depressed at the present course of the war, and they comment bitterly upon General Cronje's persistence, which they call "murder."

A German ambulance attached to the Boer forces was allowed to traverse the British lines in front of Jacobsdal.

Quantities of cattle, sheep and trek oxen have been captured while wandering from the Boer laager.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—3:55 p. m.—Lord Roberts has sent the following additional advices to the war office:

"PAARDEBERG, Saturday afternoon, Feb. 24.—Methuen reports that Barkley West was occupied by our troops on Feb. 22. The loyal inhabitants displayed great enthusiasm.

"The country west of the railway from Cape Town to Kimberley is gradually settling down. A detachment has started from De Aar for Britstown and Douglas and Prieska will shortly be visited by our troops.

"Methuen's account of the admirable manner in which the Kimberley hospital is managed, made one desire to send some of our sick and wounded there."

BULLER FIGHTING HARD.

Attempting to Take Grobler's Kloof—Within 300 Yards of the Boer Trenches.

COLENSO, Natal, Feb. 26.—The Boers, who had been reinforced, made a stand on Thursday at Grobler's kloof and on a range of hills running east. They had been forced from all their positions on the right.

General Lyttleton's division, on Thursday, advanced under cover of the kopjes. The Boers fired a Crenzot and "Long Tom." The British artillery was well sheltered in the action at daybreak and until late in the afternoon, when a heavy rifle fire on both sides developed.

The British infantry had advanced about a mile and a half, and a continuous fire was kept up until after dark. The Boers snuck to their positions. The British artillery fire was irregular. A few salvos were sent toward the thickly wooded spots and ravines, from which the Boer fire was heaviest.

The Boers sent shells into the headquarters baggage, close to the hospital, but no material damage was done. General Wynne was slightly wounded.

The Boer positions are not considered strong, with the exception of Grobler's Kloof. The hills eastward are not so high, and cannot be entrenched so well as the mountains, which the British have taken.

Early on Friday a severe rifle fire was resumed on the right and front, from the positions held over night, by both sides. The British naval guns, howitzers, mountain and field batteries shelled the Boer trenches incessantly. The Boers replied with two heavy guns, some of their shells bursting over the hospital. As a result the British wounded were removed.

During the afternoon the Fifth brigade, the Inniskillings and Dublins leading, began to advance up the hills. In spite of the constant shelling, the Boers stood up in their trenches, aiming deliberately down the hills.

The infantry advance was further covered by parties, on the right and left, firing volleys. It was slow, the British taking advantage of every bit of natural cover. The Boers on the crests of the hills as well as from the trenches part of the way down poured lead along the advancing line.

At dark the British infantry had reached within a few hundred yards of the first line of Boer trenches.

MRS. SARTORIS BETTER.

Convalescing From an Operation She Had Performed—Statement by Physician.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—The following statement relative to the condition of Mrs. Nellie Grant Sartoris was given out by the attending physicians:

"Mrs. Nellie Grant Sartoris is now convalescing from an operation, and will be about in a few days. On account of publications that her malady was cancer, we state that after the operation an examination has proved that there is no evidence that cancer has ever existed."

YELLOW FEVER NOT EXPECTED.

Cubans Protesting Against Quarantine Commencing April 1.

SANTIAGO, Feb. 23.—The announcement by the officers of the marine hospital service that quarantine regulations will be put into force on April 1 led to a special meeting of the chamber of commerce, at which a committee was appointed to draw up resolutions protesting against this as an unnecessary precaution, as yellow fever has rarely, if ever, appeared here before the middle of May.

Moreover, it is pointed out that the sanitary department is so efficient that, in the opinion of experts, an outbreak of yellow fever this year is highly improbable.

MGR. SBARRETTI IN HAVANA.

The New Bishop Peaceably Received by Cubans.

HAVANA, Feb. 26.—The conduct of the Cuban people during the celebration of Independence day is favorably commented upon by the local papers. The fact that Monsignor Sbarretti's arrival in spite of the many protests against his appointment was treated with respect, and the fact that Spanish, American and Cuban flags waved side by side unmolested and harmoniously were surprises for many. General Wood got General Gomez to pacify the people, who didn't want a foreigner for bishop.

Killed Employer's Wife and Suicided.

Caldwell was employed as an assistant by Dr. Ephraim H. Hayes, husband of the dead woman. It was said he was infatuated with the woman, who had repulsed him time and again. Her husband had befriended him. It was believed he also planned to kill her husband.

The ordination was performed Sunday afternoon by the bishop, assisted by the three presiding elders, B. J. Smoyer, O. S. Hanna and P. E. Urban.

Weldon Stricken With Paralysis.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 26.—Harry Weldon, for 20 years the sporting editor of the Cincinnati Enquirer, was stricken with paralysis here. The stroke does not affect his brain. He is perfectly conscious, but is unable to speak. The stroke seems to affect chiefly his vocal organs and the right arm and leg. His physician says his chances for recovery are good.

Ferraro May Die Today.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Everything is in readiness for the execution of Antonio Ferraro in the electric chair at Sing Sing, probably today, the execution being set for some time this week. Ferraro, contrary to expectations, has resigned himself to his fate. On April 4, 1898, in a fight with a fellow countryman, named Lucino Muchin, in Brooklyn, Ferraro cut his opponent's throat with a razor, killing him instantly.

UNION LABELS

It should be a deep-rooted principle of all union workmen and union sympathizers and particularly those members of the different organizations of East Liverpool, to buy nothing but Union Label goods, in preference to all others. And why not? If we ask fair wages for our labor, why should we buy goods made at unfair wages by others?

The Union Label in every industry is a guarantee of fair wages, decent working hours, and union labor employed.

All Union papers of East Liverpool are down to the various craft and unions of the city by the printing of the above Union Labels at the head of their columns.

Yesterday Officer White was called upon to settle a dispute between the mate and two deckhands of the towboat D. B. Wood. The dispute was settled by the deckhands getting their wages, $33 each, and taking the Ben Hur for Pittsburg.

At 10 o'clock this morning fire was discovered in a store room out West Market street, occupied as a warehouse by a huckster named Todd. An over heated stove was the cause, which set fire to the wall. The damage was slight, as the flames were extinguished with a babcock.

Waiting to Be Eaten.

The wasp is not a vegetarian, like the bee, and so the wasp mother has before her the problem of supporting her young with meat. As her eggs are laid out in hot weather and as food enough must be stored in the cell with the egg to mature the young insects, the question is how to preserve the meat fresh for so long a time.

After a tube is finished except one end, which is left open, she flies off on a hunt for spiders. She finds a fat, healthy one, pounces upon it, stings it, carries it off and places it in the mud cell. She repeats this process until she has placed as many spiders in the tube as, according to her judgment, will be needed. She then lays an egg in the cell and walls up the opening.

Whether it is the result of a subtle poison or whether it is a special spot in the spider's nervous system where the sting is inserted we do not know, but certain it is that after being thus stung the spider lives on in a paralyzed condition for weeks and even months. It can move only slightly and remains helpless in its mud sepulcher until the wasp egg hatches into a voracious grub, which at once falls to and eats with great relish the meat thus miraculously preserved.

Whether the spider can feel pain in this paralyzed state is not known, but it certainly retains its sight and so watches the wasp grub growing, and a spider's natural fear of a wasp would cause ample suffering to atone for its own onslaught on flies.

Peter Cooper Met the Spirits.

During Peter Cooper's lifetime he was a frequent visitor at the home of S. J. Pardessus, on Pacific street, Brooklyn.

At one time Mr. Cooper became greatly interested in the spirit manifestations of the Fox sisters and was anxious to investigate their rappings personally, but he did not like to attend one of their public seances, for he feared recognition and consequently a great deal of talk. Finally it was arranged that one of the sisters should spend a night at Mr. Pardessus' house and the doughty Peter be invited to meet her.

Miss Fox came, and the spirits came too. The family retired early. Mr. Cooper occupying a bedroom on the opposite side of the hall from that of the fair ally of the supernatural. He was just settling himself comfortably for "a long winter's nap" when a rapping began on the headboard of his bed which sent shivers to his very marrow. It was only the beginning of a "rat, tat, tat," that kept up at intervals during the night in all parts of the room, and before daylight came Mr. Cooper had listened to enough spirits to last him a lifetime. He never said much about the experience, but he never asked to have it repeated.—New York Mail and Express.

Don't Give Up the Ship.

Somewhat more than 50 years ago it happened to me to meet at the house of a mutual friend a daughter of the late Major Benjamin Russell, for many years editor of the Boston Centinel. She was a bright, interesting woman and a brilliant raconteur, and she told me a number of anecdotes of her father, who was a strongly individualized and notable character for a good many years. Among them was the following:

The battle between the Chesapeake and the Shannon took place just off the Massachusetts coast, and a sailor in some way got ashore and hurried to Boston with the news. It was in the night, and he went straight to The Centinel office, where he found Major Russell, to whom he told the story, including the death of Lawrence.

"What were his last words?" said the major.

"Don't know," said the man.

"Didn't he say, 'Don't give up the ship?'"

"Don't know," said the man.

"Oh, he did!" said the major. "I'll make him say it." And he did—so much for history.—Hartford Courant.

The Thistle of Scotland.

Once upon a time many hundred years ago the Danes made war upon the Scots and invaded their country. One dark night, as they were marching upon an encampment of sleeping Scots, one of their number trod upon a thistle. The pain was so sudden and intense that the man gave a loud cry. This awakened the slumbering Scots, who sprang to arms and defeated the assailants. In gratitude for the deliverance the Scots made the thistle their national emblem.—Journal of Education.

STEYN IS FOR PEACE

Both He and Botha Urge Kruger to Sue.

HOFMEYER MAY PROPOSE TERMS.

Republics to Retain Absolute Independence, but to Disarm—If England Refuses, Then to Ask Cape Dutch to Rebel. The Above Rumored.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—The Lourenzo Marques correspondent of The Times says: The feeling in official circles at Pretoria borders on consternation. Gen. Louis Botha and President Steyn are urging President Kruger to sue for peace. At Bloemfontein General Cronje's position is regarded as hopeless.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—In about a fortnight the congress of the Afrikaner bond will meet, and it is rumored that Mr. Hofmeyer will then propose peace terms on the basis of the republics retaining absolute independence, but offering to disarm. If these terms are rejected, it is understood that a manifesto will boldly be issued to the Dutch throughout South Africa calling upon them to throw off their allegiance to Great Britain.

Probably these rumors are exaggerated, but there is no doubt that the greatest anxiety prevails in Cape Town regarding coming events.

Germany, through the semi-official Berliner Post, reiterates that all reports of German intervention are quite without foundation.

GEN. CRONJE SHORT OF AMMUNITION.

British Captured a Position Which May Prevent Reinforcements Reaching Him.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—A dispatch to The Morning Post from Kimberley, dated Friday, says: General Cronje is reported to have plenty of provisions, but to be running short of ammunition. Mr. Rhodes is extremely hopeful that the war has reached its concluding stage.

PAARDEBURG, Orange Free State, Feb. 26.—General Cronje's position is more hopeless than ever. Our guns dominate the sloping ascents from the river on all sides and by the rush of the Shropshires on Wednesday night up the river bed the Boers lost 200 yards space in their cover.

Deserters say the British fire has been very deadly and affirm that General Cronje himself is willing to surrender, but is overborne by the young Boers from the Transvaal.

There are women and children with the Boer force. General Roberts proposed to let them pass out of danger, but this suggestion, as well as the proffer of medical aid, has been rejected.

The kopje captured by the British last Wednesday, when 50 prisoners were taken, is a most important strategic position. Its possession should enable us to repulse any Boer reinforcements from the eastward.

Blivouacked Near Boer Laager and Terrific Fusillade Followed—Casualties Practically None.

PAARDEBURG, Orange Free State, Feb. 26.—The fourth day of General Cronje's fine defense opened in startling fashion. Soon after dawn a most terrific battle of rifle fire broke out, waking the sleeping camp. It was the heaviest fire during the war, and all awaited with forboding the news of its effect.

It soon developed that the Gloucesters and Essexes had lost their way and had bivouacked, in error, close to the Boer laager, on the north side of the river. As soon as they were perceived by the enemy the latter fusilladed. Wonderful to tell the British casualties were practically none.

There was desultory firing all day long on both the north and south banks, General Knox's brigade holding and pushing forward the line south of the river, while General Smith-Dorrien, on the north side, worked toward the laager. Meanwhile General French advanced, in a far easterly direction, near a kopje held by a strong force of Cronje's men, reinforced by a Ladysmith contingent. At the same time General Broadwood's brigade, with a battery of horse artillery, took up positions to the left and rear of the same kopje.

The front of the hill was thoroughly searched by a raking fire. Suddenly the Boers bolted from every side toward General French, who headed toward the drift, shelling vigorously. A great number escaped, but many were killed by shrapnel, and about 40 were captured.

As soon as the kopje was evacuated, this correspondent visited it. The position was found to be wonderfully strong naturally and to form the real key to the position in the case of defense against Boer reinforcements advancing from the east.

Our first contact with the Ladysmith Boers was singularly unfortunate for them. A great deal of forage, provisions and equipment was captured, and the kopje was frequently dotted with blood, showing that many wounded had been removed.

The Boer method of removing their dead is to tie a couple of reins to the body, which is thus dragged off by two horsemen at full gallop.

PARTIES OF BOERS REPULSED.

They Had Arrived From Natal, to Reinforce Cronje.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—3:35 p. m.—The war office published a dispatch from Lord Roberts containing the following:

PAARDEBURG, Feb. 24.—12:20 p. m.—Parties of Boers recently arrived from Natal attacked our outposts in force yesterday. They lost a good many killed and wounded and nearly 100 prisoners, including a commandant and three field cornets. Our casualties were 4 officers wounded, 9 men killed, 23 men wounded, 2 missing. On the 21st and 22d 1 officer and 13 men were wounded.

Six men were wounded yesterday by hollow nosed Manser bullets. The nickel case is slit with four slits, making the projectile of the most expansive and explosive nature possible. A wounded Boer brought to our hospital yesterday had 60 of these bullets in his pockets.

During the advances at Kimberley the casualties were: Officers, 2 killed, 13 wounded; men, 4 killed, 78 wounded.

CAPTAIN MONTMORENCY KILLED.

Scouts Driven Back by Boers, Whom They Found Near Molteno.

STERKSTROOM, Feb. 26.—A reconnaissance in force under General Gatacre, with eight guns, found the Boers occupying a ridge three miles beyond Molteno, in the Stormberg direction.

Montmorency's scouts charged the Boers, who crept round the scouts' flank, pouring in a deadly fire. The scouts were finally compelled to retire, having lost heavily. Fourteen are missing. Captain Montmorency was killed.

The reconnaissance was valuable and would have been most satisfactory had it not been for the unfortunate disaster to the scouts with whom Lieutenant Colonel Hoskier happened to be. Their loss was four killed and many wounded and missing.

AGUINALDO WAS RELEASED.

Army Officers, Had the Leader, but Failed to Recognize Him.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—There is a story in circulation among some of the army officers, who have just arrived from Manila, that the army actually captured Aguinaldo in Cavite province, put him in jail for 15 days as a suspicious amigo, and then released him, only to hear of his identity after he had gotten away.

Because of the similarity of feature and figure of the Tagals, the Americans have had great difficulty in distinguishing one individual from another, in telling friend from foe.

The ability of the Philippine leader to make up as a Chinaman, or "Chino," as they are called in the Philippines; is said to be remarkable, and only a fellow native is able to penetrate such a disguise.

Bribery Charges Caused Squabble.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., Feb. 26.—Several of the eight councilmen who voted for the resignations and arrest of Councilmen O. J. Reed, E. O. Zurn, William Rappard, Thomas Holl and William Zimmerman, announced that if the citizens did not prosecute the bribery charges against the accused members they would resign rather than serve with men alleged to be bribers. Councilman Zimmerman threatens to sue for $20,000 damages against his accusers if they institute proceedings.

THRUST BY SCURMAN

Attacks the Plan For Porto Rico Rican Tariff.

AGAINST THE PRESIDENT'S WISH.

Says It Is Opposed to Every Man's Sense of Justice—Republicans Failed to Agree on the Bill, at a Conference Held in Washington.

DETROIT, Feb. 26.—President Jacob G. Schurman, of the first Philippine commission, in an interview here, talking of the proposed Porto Rican tariff bill, said in part:

"Should the present congress adopt a tariff for Porto Rico against the recommendations of the commissioners and of the president and against every man's sense of justice and generosity, the orators of the Democracy can say with truth during the next campaign that the trusts went down to Washington and grappled the Republican party by the throat and made it choke to their advantage."

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—A long conference was held at the residence of Representative McCall, of Massachusetts, between the committee appointed at the Republican conference Saturday night, representing the Republicans in favor of the pending Porto Rican tariff bill, and a committee agreed upon by those Republicans who are opposed to the measure.

Propositions pro and con were made by both sides, but none of those made on behalf of the advocates of the pending bill amounted to an abandonment of the principles of the measure, viz.: the right of the United States to levy a tariff on imports from Porto Rico, and as its opponents consider this their fundamental objection to the measure, no agreement could be reached. After the conference, opponents of the bill said there was no probability of another gathering before the conference of Republicans called for tonight. From their statements, it was evident they intended to maintain the position they have held all along, that under the constitution the government has no right to tax the products of territory under control of the United States.

VOTE ON QUAY CASE.

Believed It Will Be Reached This Week. Other Matters to Be Considered.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—The time of the senate during the present week will be divided between the questions of the finances, the government policy toward the insular possessions and the seating of Senator Quay upon the nomination of the governor of Pennsylvania.

The Hawaiian bill remains the unfinished business, subject to removal at any time by the Quay resolution and also by the conference report upon the currency bill.

Senator Aldrich has given notice that he will make a speech in explanation of the currency bill agreement on Wednesday and that he will call it up the next day (Thursday) and then ask final action upon it. The request of course will lead to a spirited contest, to many sharp speeches and to the final adoption of the report by practically the same vote by which the bill originally passed the senate.

The matter may be before the senate for several days.

There will be several speeches during the week on the Quay resolution and there is a probability of reaching a vote on it the latter part of the week. Senator Chandler probably will speak for Mr. Quay today and Senator Turley in opposition. Later in the week Senators Hoar and Penrose will talk for Mr. Quay and Senator Burrows in opposition. After these only short speeches will be heard. Senator Penrose says he will make an effort to have the discussion confined to the morning hour so as not to interfere with other questions before the senate, but that if a disposition to delay the vote should become apparent he will then press the Quay matter. He counts upon a vote late in the week and says he expects a larger vote than was cast in Mr. Quay's favor in taking the resolution up.

the Porto Rican will be taken up. Senator Depew probably tomorrow will speak on the problems connected with the Philippine islands.

MEN FROZEN TO DEATH.

One Perished Near Elyria, O., and Another in Pittsburgh—Victims of Accidents.

CLEVELAND, Feb. 26.—The temperature here was near the zero mark and a fierce gale from the northwest blew all day. During most of the day snow fell also. Cars on the street railway lines were operated with difficulty. The storm was general throughout Northern Ohio, and in several places very low temperature was recorded, the minimum at Youngstown being 14 degrees below zero.

A wealthy farmer named Matthew Lattimer, 72 years old, was frozen to death while walking a half mile to his home near Elyria, O.

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 26.—At one point in this city, Herron hill, the thermometer went down to 8 degrees below.

Y. M. C. A. CONVENTION.

The Pennsylvania Association Meeting Adjourned at Williamsport—The Closing Services.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., Feb. 26.—The last meeting of the Y. M. C. A. convention took place last night. The meetings of Sunday began at 9 o'clock a. m., when Dr. Pierson delivered his last address. His subject was "Holiness and Service." The meeting was a big one. The largest meeting of the day occurred at 3:30 in the afternoon. A long list of speakers took part. At the same hour a women's meeting was held in the First Presbyterian church. The Bloomsburg Male chorus sang, and services calculated to interest and aid women were conducted.

In the Association hall the boys' meeting was held. The meeting was of such a nature that the youth was instructed in the principles of the association and its work, without finding it tiresome or disagreeable in any way.

At the farewell service, which was held in the Association hall, the delegates circled about the room and joined hands while they all sang the hymn which has been so popular through the convention, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds."

IN MEMORY OF NEWMAN.

The Services Held in the Metropolitan Church, Washington—President McKinley Attended.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—At the Metropolitan Methodist Episcopal church, Sunday, Bishop John F. Hurst preached a memorial sermon at a special service held in honor and remembrance of Bishop John P. Newman.

Notwithstanding the wind and cold the auditorium was filled to the doors. President McKinley was an interested auditor. Bishop Newman served the Metropolitan church for two terms.

Train Struck a Carriage Near Geneva, N. Y.

VICTIMS WERE ALL OF ONE FAMILY.

One of the Injured Said to Have Been Fatally Hurt and the Other Badly Burned—Howling Gale Prevented Hearing the Train.

GENEVA, N. Y., Feb. 26.—The midnight express on the Lehigh Valley railroad struck a carriage containing seven persons, at Tuttle's crossing, about 25 miles east from Rochester, instantly killing five of the occupants, fatally injuring another and badly bruising the other. All were members of a family.

The Dead.

THE EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

15TH YEAR. NO 218

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., MONDAY, FEB. 26, 1900.

STEYN IS FOR PEACE

Both He and Botha Urge Kruger to Sue.

HOFFMEYER MAY PROPOSE TERMS.

Republics to Retain Absolute Independence, but to Disarm—If England Refuses, Then to Ask Cape Dutch to Rebel. The Above Rumored.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—The Lourenço Marques correspondent of The Times says: The feeling in official circles at Pretoria borders on consternation. Gen. Louis Botha and President Steyn are urging President Kruger to sue for peace. At Bloemfontein General Cronje's position is regarded as hopeless.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—In about a fortnight the congress of the Afrikaner bond will meet, and it is rumored that Mr. Hoffmeyer will then propose peace terms on the basis of the republics retaining absolute independence, but offering to disarm. If these terms are rejected, it is understood that a manifesto will boldly be issued to the Dutch throughout South Africa calling upon them to throw off their allegiance to Great Britain.

Probably these rumors are exaggerated, but there is no doubt that the greatest anxiety prevails in Cape Town regarding coming events.

Germany, through the semi-official Berliner Post, reiterates that all reports of German intervention are quite without foundation.

GEN. CRONJE SHORT OF AMMUNITION.

British Captured a Position Which May Prevent Reinforcements Reaching Him.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—A dispatch to The Morning Post from Kimberley, dated Friday, says: General Cronje is reported to have plenty of provisions, but to be running short of ammunition. Mr. Rhodes is extremely hopeful that the war has reached its concluding stage.

PAARDEBURG, Orange Free State, Feb. 26.—General Cronje's position is more hopeless than ever. Our guns dominate the sloping ascents from the river on all sides and by the rush of the Shropshires on Wednesday night up the river bed the Boers lost 200 yards space in their cover.

Deserters say the British fire has been very deadly and affirm that General Cronje himself is willing to surrender, but is overborne by the young Boers from the Transvaal.

There are women and children with the Boer force. General Roberts proposed to let them pass out of danger, but this suggestion, as well as the proffer of medical aid, has been rejected.

The kopje captured by the British last Wednesday, when 50 prisoners were taken, is a most important strategic position. Its possession should enable us to repulse any Boer reinforcements from the eastward.

THE BRITISH BLUNDERED.

Bivouacked Near Boer Laager and Terrific Fusillade Followed—Casualties Practically None.

PAARDEBURG, Orange Free State, Feb. 26.—The fourth day of General Cronje's fine defense opened in startling fashion. Soon after dawn a most terrific rattle of rifle fire broke out, waking the sleeping camp. It was the heaviest fire during the war, and all awaited with foreboding the news of its effect.

It soon developed that the Gloucesters and Essexes had lost their way and had bivouacked, in error, close to the Boer laager, on the north side of the river. As soon as they were perceived by the enemy the latter fusilladed. Wonderful to tell the British casualties were practically none.

There was desultory firing all day long on both the north and south banks, General Knox's brigade holding and pushing forward the line south of the river, while General Smith-Dorrien, on the north side, worked toward the laager. Meanwhile General French advanced, in a far easterly direction, near a kopje held by a strong force of Cronje's men, reinforced by a Ladysmith contingent. At the same time General Broadwood's brigade, with a battery of horse artillery, took up positions to the left and rear of the same kopje.

The front of the hill was thoroughly searched by a raking fire. Suddenly the Boers bolted from every side toward General French, who headed toward the drift, shelling vigorously. A great number escaped, but many were killed by shrapnel, and about 40 were captured.

As soon as the kopje was evacuated, this correspondent visited it. The position was found to be wonderfully strong naturally and to form the real key to the position in the case of defense against Boer reinforcements advancing from the east.

Our first contact with the Ladysmith Boers was singularly unfortunate for them. A great deal of forage, provisions and equipment was captured, and the kopje was frequently dotted with blood, showing that many wounded had been removed.

The Boer method of removing their dead is to tie a couple of reins to the body, which is thus dragged off by two horsemen at full gallop.

PARTIES OF BOERS REPULSED.

They Had Arrived From Natal, to Reinforce Cronje.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—3:35 p. m.—The war office published a dispatch from Lord Roberts containing the following:

PAARDEBURG, Feb. 24.—12:20 p. m.—Parties of Boers recently arrived from Natal attacked our outposts in force, yesterday. They lost a good many killed and wounded and nearly 100 prisoners, including a commandant and three field cornets. Our casualties were 4 officers wounded, 9 men killed, 23 men wounded, 2 missing. On the 21st and 22d 1 officer and 13 men were wounded.

Six men were wounded yesterday by hollow nosed Mauser bullets. The nickel case is slit with four slits, making the projectile of the most explosive and explosive nature possible. A wounded Boer brought to our hospital yesterday had 60 of these bullets in his pockets.

During the advances at Kimberley the casualties were: Officers, 2 killed, 13 wounded; men, 4 killed, 78 wounded.

CAPTAIN MONTMORENCY KILLED.

Scouts Driven Back by Boers, Whom They Found Near Molteno.

STERKSTROOM, Feb. 26.—A reconnaissance in force under General Gatacre, with eight guns, found the Boers occupying a ridge three miles beyond Molteno, in the Stormberg direction.

Montmorency's scouts charged the Boers, who crept round the scouts' flank, pouring in a deadly fire. The scouts were finally compelled to retire, having lost heavily. Fourteen are missing. Captain Montmorency was killed.

The reconnaissance was valuable and would have been most satisfactory had it not been for the unfortunate disaster to the scouts with whom Lieutenant Colonel Hoskier happened to be. Their loss was four killed and many wounded and missing.

AGUINALDO WAS RELEASED.

Army Officers, Had the Leader, but Failed to Recognize Him.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—There is a story in circulation among some of the army officers, who have just arrived from Manila, that the army actually captured Aguinaldo in Cavite province, put him in jail for 15 days as a suspicious amingo, and then released him, only to hear of his identity after he had gotten away.

Because of the similarity of feature and figure of the Tagals, the Americans have had great difficulty in distinguishing one individual from another, in telling friend from foe.

The ability of the Philippine leader to make up as a Chinaman, or "Chino," as they are called in the Philippines, is said to be remarkable, and only a fellow native is able to penetrate such a disguise.

Bribery Charges Caused Squabble.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., Feb. 26.—Several of the eight councilmen who voted for the resignations and arrest of Councilmen O. J. Reed, E. O. Zurn, William Repard, Thomas Holl and William Zimmerman, announced that if the citizens did not prosecute the bribery charges against the accused members they would resign rather than serve with men alleged to be bribers. Councilman Zimmerman threatens to sue for $20,000 damages against his accusers if they institute proceedings.

THRUST BY SCURMAN

Attacks the Plan For Porto Rican Tariff.

AGAINST THE PRESIDENT'S WISH.

Says It Is Opposed to Every Man's Sense of Justice—Republicans Failed to Agree on the Bill, at a Conference Held in Washington.

DETROIT, Feb. 26.—President Jacob G. Schurman, of the first Philippine commission, in an interview here, talking of the proposed Porto Rican tariff bill, said in part:

"Should the present congress adopt a tariff for Porto Rico against the recommendations of the commissioners and of the president and against every man's sense of justice and generosity, the orators of the Democracy can say with truth during the next campaign that the trusts went down to Washington and grappled the Republican party by the throat and made it choke to their advantage."

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—A long conference was held at the residence of Representative McCall, of Massachusetts, between the committee appointed at the Republican conference Saturday night, representing the Republicans in favor of the pending Porto Rican tariff bill, and a committee agreed upon by those Republicans who are opposed to the measure.

Propositions pro and con were made by both sides, but none of those made on behalf of the advocates of the pending bill amounted to an abandonment of the principles of the measure, viz.: the right of the United States to levy a tariff on imports from Porto Rico, and as its opponents consider this their fundamental objection to the measure, no agreement could be reached. After the conference, opponents of the bill said there was no probability of another gathering before the conference of Republicans called for tonight. From their statements, it was evident they intended to maintain the position they have held all along, that under the constitution the government has no right to tax the products of territory under control of the United States.

VOTE ON QUAY CASE.

Believed It Will Be Reached This Week. Other Matters to Be Considered.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—The time of the senate during the present week will be divided between the questions of the finances, the government policy toward the insular possessions and the seating of Senator Quay upon the nomination of the governor of Pennsylvania.

The Hawaiian bill remains the unfinished business, subject to removal at any time by the Quay resolution and also by the conference report upon the currency bill.

Senator Aldrich has given notice that he will make a speech in explanation of the currency bill agreement on Wednesday and that he will call it up the next day (Thursday) and then ask final action upon it. The request of course will lead to a spirited contest, to many sharp speeches and to the final adoption of the report by practically the same vote by which the bill originally passed the senate.

The matter may be before the senate for several days.

There will be several speeches during the week on the Quay resolution and there is a probability of reaching a vote on it the latter part of the week. Senator Chandler probably will speak for Mr. Quay today and Senator Turley in opposition. Later in the week Senators Hoar and Penrose will talk for Mr. Quay and Senator Burrows in opposition. After these only short speeches will be heard. Senator Penrose says he will make an effort to have the discussion confined to the morning hour so as not to interfere with other questions before the senate, but that if a disposition to delay the vote should become apparent he will then press the Quay matter. He counts upon a vote late in the week and says he expects a larger vote than was cast in Mr. Quay's favor in taking the resolution up.

the Porto Rican will be taken up. Senator Depew probably tomorrow will speak on the problems connected with the Philippine islands.

His subject was "Holiness and Service." The meeting was a big one. The largest meeting of the day occurred at 3:30 in the afternoon. A long list of speakers took part. At the same hour a women's meeting was held in the First Presbyterian church. The Bloomsburg Male chorus sang, and services calculated to interest and aid women were conducted.

In the Association hall the boys' meeting was held. The meeting was of such a nature that the youth was instructed in the principles of the association and its work, without finding it tiresome or disagreeable in any way.

At the farewell service, which was held in the Association hall, the delegates circled about the room and joined hands while they all sang the hymn which has been so popular through the convention, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds."

The Wheeling parties are after the oil territory while the coal lands are being leased by Pittsburg parties. It is not likely that any actual work will be done until the advent of spring. Matters have progressed so far that the promoters of the boom feel confident that Georgetown will enjoy a boom that will be long lived.

BOOM FOR GEORGETOWN.

COAL AND OIL LANDS BEING LEASED.

J. E. McDonald Is Back of the Deal--News of Chester and Vicinity.

The little hamlet of Georgetown four miles north of Chester is to have a boom, and very soon, if the present plans of some men are carried out. Within the past two weeks men from Wheeling and Pittsburg have spent considerable time about Georgetown leasing coal lands and oil territory. James E. McDonald is working up the matter, and so far his work has been successful although it is just in its infancy. The Wheeling parties are after the oil territory while the coal lands are being leased by Pittsburg parties. It is not likely that any actual work will be done until the advent of spring. Matters have progressed so far that the promoters of the boom feel confident that Georgetown will enjoy a boom that will be long lived.

LARGE ENGINE.

Fifteen Cars Used to Bring It to Chester From Mt. Vernon.

The engine that will be used at the Chester rolling mill, is a ponderous piece of work. It has been shipped from Mt. Vernon, where it was made, and is expected to arrive at any time. The weight of the engine is something over 700,000 pounds and 15 cars are being used in its transportation. The engine will be erected under the supervision of a man from the factory.

No Board Walks.

Because of the cold weather of the past few days, work on the board walk being laid in Chester has been stopped. There are a number of men employed on this work. They will finish the walks within a short time.

The citizens of Chester will hold a meeting in the post office building Tuesday evening, at 8 o'clock, to make definite arrangements for the extension of the board walk from Third street to post office, and thence out Fairview avenue to Cunningham's spring.

Will Return to Adrian College.

Will Curfman, of East Liverpool, will not move to Nessly chapel, near New Cumberland, for a couple of weeks yet. The parsonage is located in Cumberland and Mr. Curfman will reside at that place instead of Nessly chapel.

Next fall Curfman will return to Adrian to complete his theological course.

Attending Official Meetings.

She will return to Chester about the last of the week. The services at the church yesterday consisted of class meetings.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O. MONDAY, FEB. 26.

FOR PRESIDENT--Second Term.
WM. McKINLEY,
of Ohio.

OUR CANDIDATES.

The primary has come and gone. The battle was a hot one, and every inch of the battle field was warmly contested. W. O. Davidson won out in the race for mayor by a safe margin. T. V. Thompson had votes to spare in the contest for marshal. A. J. Johnson, Davidson's closest competitor, is out in a card thanking his backers, and will doff his coat and work like a Trojan for the success of his victorious competitor and the whole ticket. Willis Davidson made a superb fight, and won second place in the struggle for the nomination of marshal. Willis smilingly bows to the fiat of fate, and says that T. V. Thompson and the entire Republican ticket shall have his warm support. This is as it should be, and every candidate who was in the fight will make friends by acting in the same manner. The nominations for council are all right. In fact, the entire ticket is one which the opponents of the Republican party and nominees cannot hope to beat or defeat. The untirred are whistling to keep their courage up, and boasting that they have a good chance for victory at the coming election. With a united front, unity in the party and a pull altogether, we can afford to laugh at all such pretensions. The indications are that East Liverpool will give an increased Republican majority on Monday, April 2.

THE NEW COUNCIL.

How It Will Stand If the Republican Candidates Win Out at Election.

If the Republican nominees win at the election the new city council will be made up as follows:

- First ward--Harvey McHenry and R. O. Heddleson.
Second ward--J. T. Smith and O. D. Nice.
Third ward--George Peach and S. J. Cripps.
Fourth ward--F. L. Fisher and D. M. McLane or G. W. Ashbaugh.
Fifth ward--R. J. Marshall and John N. Arnold.

Japan's Children.

From one end of Japan to the other a child is treated as a sacred thing, be it one's own or a stranger's. Each one carries its name and address on a ticket round its neck, but should it in deed stray from home food and shelter and kindness would meet it anywhere.

Mrs. Gilmore, wonderful soprano, Grand, March 1.

DAVIDSON FOR MAYOR.

Thompson Wins for Marshal and Gaston Defeats McGarry for Solicitor--Hanley, McCarron and Beardmore Winners.

Heddleson for Council in First Ward, Nice in Second, Cripps in Third, and Marshall and Arnold in Fifth--McLane and Ashbaugh Tied for Council in Fourth.

Full Returns of Saturday's Primaries.

ELECTION ECHOES.

The church vote failed to stand by Christian Metsch.

'Twas a bad day for those who are careless as to casting their ballots at any time.

Willis Davidson made a splendid showing for the limited time he was in the field.

Tim. Thompson's vote was a rouser from Rousertown.

Reark made a strong bid for the berth of township clerk, but could not overcome Hanley's following.

Badgley and Davidson split the opposition to Tim Thompson in the fight for marshal.

Johnston and Gaston votes seemed to amalgamate, coalesce, and stem the tide side by side.

Another "surprise party" was the battle between McLane and Ashbaugh, in the Fourth ward.

Beardmore came on deck, as usual with a heavy vote, although Mack Anderson gave him a struggle for the place.

McCarron was successful in landing the justice of the peace plum.

Young Heddleson surprised the knowing ones. Garner had been slated to win out, but the goods could not be delivered.

Burgess made a splendid showing and in a very quiet manner.

Bryan swung his votes into line in great shape.

McGarry made a splendid up hill fight against the councilmanic members whom he had offended. He has no need to be ashamed of his magnificent battle. He did not have a single worker out.

Gaston can congratulate himself on his unexpected success. The sports were backing McGarry to win.

The surprise of the occasion was the vote given to Gilbert.

H. P. McCarron won the right to lade out justice by a majority of 67 over L. W. Carman. Total vote, 2,053.

James N. Hanley had 503 majority over Reark in a total vote of 2,288.

Joseph Beardmore was renominated by a majority of 663 over Matthew Anderson for township trustee. Total vote, 2,099.

Davidson, for mayor, carried five precincts, Burgess two and Johnston two.

Thompson carried all but one precinct, the second of the Fourth which was carried by Badgley.

Hanley carried every precinct.

Bryan carried every precinct.

Gaston, for solicitor, carried six precincts, McGarry two, and one, the first of the Third was a tie. In the second of the Fourth, Gaston won by one vote.

The East End was where Gaston got four-fifths of his majority.

McCarron for justice carried six of the nine precincts. In the second of the Fourth McCarron won by one vote. Carman's own ward, the Fifth, gave him almost four to one.

Beardmore for trustee carried every precinct but the Fifth ward, where Anderson beat him eight votes.

R. C. Heddleson for council in the First carried both precincts, the first by three votes and the second by 46, majority over Garner, 49.

O. D. Nice carried the first precinct of the Second ward for council by 44 which was only cut down five by Bessen's majority in the second precinct, leaving Nice a winner by 39 majority.

S. J. Cripps carried both precincts in the Third, the first by 66 and the second by 111, making his majority, 177, over August Freymark.

In the Fourth ward G. W. Ashbaugh, retiring councilman, and D. M. McLane tied with 192 votes each. Michael McGeever had 101. Ashbaugh carried the first precinct by a plurality of 29

over McLane, who carried the second precinct by exactly the same plurality over Ashbaugh.

In the Fifth ward R. J. Marshall, retiring councilman, was renominated at the head of the list with 133 votes, five votes more than John Arnold with 128, who was also nominated, there being two to elect. James W. Jameson polled 79 votes, Marshall beating him 54 votes and Arnold 49 votes.

The total vote cast for mayor was 2,437. W. O. Davidson's plurality over Johnson was 171. The winner polled something more than a third of all the votes cast.

For marshal T. V. Thompson won with a plurality of 319 over Willis Davidson in a total vote of 2,414 for that office.

Street Commissioner Bryan was renominated by the record majority of 1,283. Total vote for that office, 2,245.

W. K. Gaston defeated M. J. McGarry for city solicitor by 55 votes. The total vote for solicitor was 2,109.

There was no contest for the job of assessor except in the Third ward and here Henry Deitz defeated J. O. Allison by a vote of 246 to 169. The assessors in the other wards are: R. L. McKenty, Sylvester Kinsey, W. H. Gaston and Grant McDade.

THE NEW SCHOOL BOARD.

How It Will Be Made Up If the Republican Nominees Are Elected.

The new school board will be made up as follows if the Republican nominees are elected: W. B. Hill, J. O. Taggart and J. H. Smith holdovers, and O. C. Vodrey, G. O. Murphy and L. O. Williams, old members, and W. E. Wells, new. The last four were nominated Saturday.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

"The Irish Alderman."

It has been suggested that the front of the city hall be painted green, as a delicate, artistic and vernal compliment to Hon. Richard Carroll, "The Irish Alderman" from New York, who is to speak at the Grand tonight.

"What Happened to Jones."

William Gillette has given us a versatile and accomplished liar in "Too Much Johnson," but for cold blooded and artistic falsehood the hero of that sterling farce is not in it for a moment with the drummer Jones, in Broadhurst's "What Happened to Jones," which comes to the Grand Tuesday evening, Feb. 27.

"A Man of Mystery."

Hypnotism is a form of sleep or somnambulism brought on by artificial means, in which there is an unusual suspension of some powers, and an unusual activity of others. This peculiar condition is employed in the new melodrama, "A Man of Mystery," which is to be presented at the Grand, Wednesday evening.

Daniel Webster's Paper Cutter.

Joseph M. Terry of Peconic, N. Y., has presented a valuable relic of Daniel Webster to the Suffolk County Historical society. It is an ivory paper cutter which Mr. Webster used for a number of years in his library at Marshfield, Mass. Webster gave it to Charles Taylor, then a boy, whose father was at the time manager of Mr. Webster's farm. Young Taylor preserved the relic and several years ago while residing near Mr. Terry's house gave it to him.—New York Sun.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O. MONDAY, FEB. 26.

FOR PRESIDENT--Second Term.
WM. M'KINLEY,
Of Ohio.

OUR CANDIDATES.

The primary has come and gone. The battle was a hot one, and every inch of the battle field was warmly contested. W. O. Davidson won out in the race for mayor by a safe margin. T. V. Thompson had votes to spare in the contest for marshal. A. J. Johnson, Davidson's closest competitor, is out in a card thanking his backers, and will doff his coat and work like a Trojan for the success of his victorious competitor and the whole ticket. Willis Davidson made a superb fight, and won second place in the struggle for the nomination of marshal. Willis smilingly bows to the fiat of fate, and says that T. V. Thompson and the entire Republican ticket shall have his warm support. This is as it should be, and every candidate who was in the fight will make friends by acting in the same manner. The nominations for council are all right. In fact, the entire ticket is one which the opponents of the Republican party and nominees cannot hope to beat or defeat. The untirred are whistling to keep their courage up, and boasting that they have a good chance for victory at the coming election. With a united front, unity in the party and a pull altogether, we can afford to laugh at all such pretensions. The indications are that East Liverpool will give an increased Republican majority on Monday, April 2.

THE NEW COUNCIL.

How It Will Stand If the Republican Candidates Win Out at Election.

If the Republican nominees win at the election the new city council will be made up as follows:

- First ward--Harvey McHenry and R. O. Heddleson.
- Second ward--J. T. Smith and O. D. Nice.
- Third ward--George Peach and S. J. Cripps.
- Fourth ward--F. L. Fisher and D. M. McLane or G. W. Ashbaugh.
- Fifth ward--R. J. Marshall and John N. Arnold.

Japan's Children.

From one end of Japan to the other a child is treated as a sacred thing, be it one's own or a stranger's. Each one carries its name and address on a ticket round its neck, but should it in deed stray from home food and shelter and kindness would meet it anywhere.

Mrs. Gilmore, wonderful soprano, Grand, March 1.

DAVIDSON FOR MAYOR.

Thompson Wins for Marshal and Gaston Defeats McGarry for Solicitor--Hanley, McCarron and Beardmore Winners.

Heddleson for Council in First Ward, Nice in Second, Cripps in Third, and Marshall and Arnold in Fifth--McLane and Ashbaugh Tied for Council in Fourth.
Full Returns of Saturday's Primaries.

THE TELEPHONE GANG

Had a Fight In the Porter Block Saturday Afternoon.

ONLY ONE MAN WAS ARRESTED

And He Said He Had Nothing to Do With the Scrap Except to Get Hit on the Jaw. Mayor Rough Fined Him $6 60, and the Rest of the Gang Are Still Missing.

For some time there has been a jealousy existing between the cable men and linemen of the new telephone company, and the affair finally ended in a fight Saturday afternoon.

The cablemen make more money than the linemen, and have been in the habit of throwing it up to the linemen. Saturday was pay day, and after some of the employees had filled up on bad whisky they lined up in front of the office of the company in the Porter block. One man began declaring himself, and said he would whip any man in 10 states. Nobody disputed his assertion, and the gang filed up stairs when a free for all fight started. The patrol was called, but before it arrived the gang had succeeded in breaking the glass in one of the doors and severely bruising one man. When the patrol got to the scene the only man they could find was William Carlisle, the rest of the crowd having escaped by means of the back door. Carlisle was hauled to city hall and put up security for his appearance this morning. He claimed he was an innocent party, but had arrived at the scene of the conflict in time to get hit on the jaw. The mayor fined him $6 60.

A SPECIAL ELECTION.

Fourth Ward People Will Probably Get Another Chance to Cast Their Ballots.

There will probably be a special election in the Fourth ward to settle the tie between D. M. McLane and George W. Ashbaugh, candidates for council. The law does not permit the candidates to settle the matter by a toss and neither of them favor settling it that way, anyhow. The Republican central committee will meet this week when there will be some action taken in regard to the case.

WILLIS DAVIDSON

Has Good Words For the Voters Who Stood By Him and Will Hustle For the Ticket.

"I have no growling to do and no complaints to make against any of my competitors in the nice little battle which was waged at the Republican primary on Saturday last. I made the fight warm for the leader, T. V. Thompson, and did my level best, in a square contest, to defeat him. 'Timmie' carried the longest pole and of course captured the persimmons. I congratulate him warmly, and will do my level best in assisting to elect him at the coming election. I am a Republican all the way through, and shall battle for the success of my party and its nominees on the 2d day of April, 1900. To the men who honored me with their ballots, I return my most sincere thanks.

Respectfully,
WILLIS DAVIDSON "

Soldiers of Fortune.

"It is embarrassing to meet former cotillion partners as elevator boys and waiters," said a European lady now visiting New York. "It has been my fate to undergo and inflict this unhappiness several times.

"I went to a fashionable hotel on my arrival. Wearing his hotel livery with the same grace as he had borne his officer's uniform when I last saw him and danced with him at a state ball in a foreign capital, was a man I had known. He colored to the eyes as he saw me, but made no sign, nor did I.

"The same thing has happened since at restaurants, at other hotels, in riding academies and in carriages. Some day M. le Baron de Trois Etolles and Graf von Truemmer-Schloss will appear in European society with new éclat and full purses. Will I ever say that I know where they made their money? Why, of course not. It is a far cry from America to Europe, and in their own country these gentlemen have an irreproachable social position. I have really already forgotten the names of those I have seen, I assure you."—New York Mail and Express.

Goldsmith.

Not long before the close of Goldsmith's life he produced the brilliant and humorous lines of "Retaliation." Varied accounts are given of the origin of this poem. It will be remembered that in a joke Garrick wrote the following couplet as an epitaph for Goldsmith:

Here lies Nolly Goldsmith, for shortness called Noll.
Who wrote like an angel, but talked like poor poll.

It was on April 4, 1774, that Goldsmith died. The precise spot where he was buried in the Temple churchyard is unknown.

This is Johnson's summing up of the character of Goldsmith: "He had raised money and squandered it by every artifice of acquisition and folly of expense. But let not his frailties be remembered; he was a very great man."—William Black's "Life of Goldsmith."

THE TELEPHONE GANG

Hada Fight In the Porter Block
Saturday Afternoon.

ONLY ONE MAN WAS ARRESTED

And He Said He Had Nothing to Do With the Scrap Except to Get Hit on the Jaw
Mayor Hough Fined Him $6 60, and the Rest of the Gang Are Still Missing.

For some time there has been a jealousy existing between the cable men and linemen of the new telephone company, and the affair finally ended in a fight Saturday afternoon.

The cablemen make more money than the linemen, and have been in the habit of throwing it up to the linemen. Saturday was pay day, and after some of the employees had filled up on bad whisky they lined up in front of the office of the company in the Porter block. One man began declaring himself, and said he could whip any man in 10 states. Nobody disputed his assertion, and the gang filed up stairs when a free for all fight started. The patrol was called, but before it arrived the gang had succeeded in breaking the glass in one of the doors and severely bruising one man. When the patrol got to the scene the only man they could find was William Carlisle, the rest of the crowd having escaped by means of the back door. Carlisle was hauled to city hall and put up security for his appearance this morning. He claimed he was an innocent party, but had arrived at the scene of the conflict in time to get hit on the jaw. The mayor fined him $6 60.

A SPECIAL ELECTION.

Fourth Ward People Will Probably Get Another Chance to Cast Their Ballots.

There will probably be a special election in the Fourth ward to settle the tie between D. M. McLane and George W. Ashbaugh, candidates for council. The law does not permit the candidates to settle the matter by a toss and neither of them favor settling it that way, any how. The Republican central committee will meet this week when there will be some action taken in regard to the case.

"I have no growling to do and no complaints to make against any of my competitors in the nice little battle which was waged at the Republican primary on Saturday last. I made the fight warm for the leader, T. V. Thompson, and did my level best, in a square contest, to defeat him. "Timmie" carried the longest pole and of course captured the persimmons. I congratulate him warmly, and will do my level best in assisting to elect him at the coming election. I am a Republican all the way through, and shall battle for the success of my party and its nominees on the 2d day of April, 1900. To the men who honored me with their ballots, I return my most sincere thanks.

Soldiers of Fortune.

"It is embarrassing to meet former cotillion partners as elevator boys and waiters," said a European lady now visiting New York. "It has been my fate to undergo and inflict this unhappiness several times.

"I went to a fashionable hotel on my arrival. Wearing his hotel livery with the same grace as he had borne his officer's uniform when I last saw him and danced with him at a state ball in a foreign capital, was a man I had known. He colored to the eyes as he saw me, but made no sign, nor did I.

"The same thing has happened since at restaurants, at other hotels, in riding academies and in carriages. Some day M. le Baron de Trois Etolles and Graf von Truemmer-Schloss will appear in European society with new éclat and full purses. Will I ever say that I know where they made their money? Why, of course not. It is a far cry from America to Europe, and in their own country these gentlemen have an irreproachable social position. I have really already forgotten the names of those I have seen, I assure you."—New York Mail and Express.

Goldsmith.

Not long before the close of Goldsmith's life he produced the brilliant and humorous lines of "Retaliation." Varied accounts are given of the origin of this poem. It will be remembered that in a joke Garrick wrote the following couplet as an epitaph for Goldsmith:

Here lies Nolly Goldsmith, for shortness called Noll.
Who wrote like an angel, but talked like poor poll.

It was on April 4, 1774, that Goldsmith died. The precise spot where he was buried in the Temple churchyard is unknown.

This is Johnson's summing up of the character of Goldsmith: "He had raised money and squandered it by every artifice of acquisition and folly of expense. But let not his frailties be remembered: he was a very great man."—William Black's "Life of Goldsmith."

BROUGHT BACK OLD TIMES.

A Tidbit That Was Not on the Restaurant Bill of Fare.

The force of childhood recollections and the truth of the quotation, "A touch of nature makes the whole world akin," were shown graphically by a little incident in a restaurant the other day. A quiet looking, middle aged man of prosperous appearance was eating his dinner when another well dressed man took a seat opposite him. After giving his order in a bluff, genial manner the newcomer took a sip of water and faced around. Easy Banking Methods Which Cause Americans Much Surprise.

"The continental banking methods are a great surprise to Americans," said a resident of New Orleans who has just returned from a trip abroad. "When I was in Paris last month, I met a friend one day who had an English draft for £100 on one of the largest banks in the city and wanted to get the money. He had nobody to identify him, but said, half jokingly, that he was going to try for it any how, and we went to the place together."

"We were shown up stairs to a large reception room set aside especially for customers, and presently a messenger came in and took the draft. About a dozen other people were also waiting in the room, and after a delay of about ten minutes a well dressed young gentleman came to the door and bawled out in a loud voice, 'Mr. John Smith!' My friend (call him John Smith for short) got up and was handed a bundle of bank notes. No questions were asked."

"I was astonished, and in going out I took occasion to ask the well dressed young gentleman whether the bank wasn't taking desperate chances doing business in that catch as catch can fashion. 'And why?' he inquired, opening his eyes. I tried to explain, and he shrugged his shoulders. 'We have never had any losses,' he said."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Why?

"Why," asks the New York Press.

"Should Hartford be the center of insurance in this country instead of New York? Why should Boston be the center of the copper industry? There is no copper within 1,000 miles of the Hub. Why should a majority of our shoes be made at Lynn?"

"We can understand why Pittsburg should be the center of the iron industry, sitting as she does in the heart of the ore and coal region, but why should she make nearly all our glass when there is better sand elsewhere? Why is Providence the great jewelry making city?"

A Tragedy of Mont Blanc.

The story of the destruction of the baths of St. Gervais at the foot of Mont Blanc, in 1892, is told in "The Annals of Mont Blanc." This was one of the calamities that could scarcely have been predicted or averted.

Owing to the stoppage of the subglacial drainage, in some way never ascertained, a lake was formed under the Tete Rousse glacier, in which an enormous body of water was pent up at a spot 10,000 feet above the sea level. Between 1 and 2 o'clock on the night of July 12, 1892, the ice that had held the lake gave way.

The water swept in a torrent of tremendous force over the Desert de Pierre Ronde, gathering up thousands of tons of rock and stones in its course. It passed with a terrific roar under the hamlet of Bionnassay, which it did not injure, destroyed half the village of Bionnay on the highroad between Contamines and St. Gervais and, tearing up trees as it went along, joined the main river of the Bon-Nant.

Following the river bed and destroying on its way the old Pont du Diable, it hurled its seething flood of water, timber, stones and mud upon the solid buildings of the St. Gervais baths and crushed them into fragments. Then crossing the Chamonix road, it spread itself out in the form of a hideous sea over the valley of the Arve, destroying part of the village of Le Fayet in its way.

Such was the catastrophe of St. Gervais which claimed over 150 victims. Utter ruin was everywhere. The once lovely gardens of the baths were now or six feet deep in mud and the once level grounds were strewn over the dreary waste.

She Decided to Remain.

"I will," she exclaimed. "I will not live with you another day!"

"You leave me, will you?" he calmly asked.

"Yes, I will."

"When?"

"Now—right off—this minute."

"You'll go away?"

"Yes, sir."

"I wouldn't if I were you."

"But I will, and I defy you to prevent me. I have suffered at your hands as long as I can put up with it."

"Oh, I shan't try to stop you," he quietly replied. "I'll simply report to the police that my wife has mysteriously disappeared. They'll want your description, and I will give it. You wear No. 7 shoes; you have an extra large mouth; you walk stiff in your knees; your nose turns up at the end; eyes rather on the squint; voice like a—"

"Wretch! You wouldn't dare do that!" she screamed.

"I certainly will, and the description will go in all the papers."

They glared at each other a moment in silence. Then it was plain to be seen he had the dead wood on her.—Columbus Journal.

His Great Work.

A Chicago man who has written a book was telling about it the other day to a friend who had once done him a service.

"By the way," said the author, "I would be delighted to give you a copy of my work, if you care for it."

"I should be more than pleased to have it," was the reply, "especially if you will write your name in it."

"All right. There is a bookstore just around the corner. If you will accompany me, we will go there and get it. I don't happen to have a copy in my office just now."

After they had stopped to glance at some of the new things in the bookstore the author hailed a clerk and, pushing his chest out very far, asked for the novel that he had written.

"Yes, sir," the clerk said. "We have it around here somewhere. I believe, but you are the first one who has ever asked for a copy, and it may take me some time to find it. Wouldn't something else do just as well? We have a great many better books at the same price."—Chicago Times-Herald.

FACTS ABOUT SARDINES.

The Greater Part of This Country's Consumption Now Packed Here.

Formerly the sardines consumed in this country were all imported from France. Now about three-quarters of the sardines eaten in the United States are put up here, the chief center of the sardine industry in the United States being the eastern coast of Maine, though some sardines are now put up on the coast of California. The packing of sardines in this country was begun about 1886.

Thousands of people now find employment in one part and another of the work in catching fish, in making cans and in canning and packing and marketing and so on.

Sardines are put up in greater variety than formerly, there being now sardines packed in tomato sauce, sardines in mustard, spiced sardines and so on, but the great bulk of sardines, both imported and domestic, are still put up in oil. Sardines are put up also in a greater variety of packages than formerly, there being, for example, various sizes and shapes of oval tins, and some French sardines are imported in glass, but as the great bulk of all sardines are still put up in oil, so the great bulk of them are still put up in the familiar flat boxes, the great majority of these being of the sizes known as halves and quarters and far the greater number of these being in quarters. Sardines are packed 100 tins in a case, and the consumption of sardines in this country is roughly estimated at from 1,500,000 to 2,000,000 cases annually.

Like canned goods of every description, sardines are cheaper now than they formerly were, and American sardines are sold for less than the imported. American sardines are now exported from this country to the West Indies and to South America.—New York Sun.

CHOCOLATE FIENDS.

There Are Those Who Become Slaves to This Nerve Soothing Food.

"The manufacture of chocolate," said J. R. Anso of Brazil, "is a great industry. Of all the chocolate beans imported into the United States two-thirds go to one firm in Boston, and the other third is distributed among the other manufacturers. The chocolates sold are of various grades. The Caracas chocolate is supposed to be the best."

"If you take the various grades, technically known as the Caracas, the French, the German and so on, and take a piece of each and place them in a pan of water and allow them to dissolve, any expert will tell you which is the best chocolate. The better grades will leave no sediment. The others will. This is explained by the fact that in the cheaper grades the shell is ground up and used as a 'filler.' The lighter the chocolate the better the grade. The cheaper grades are dark owing to the ground up shell."

"It is a queer thing about chocolate consumption. There are chocolate fiends, just as there are opium fiends, tobacco slaves and liquor slaves. I cannot tell you why it is, but if people begin to eat chocolate the habit grows upon them. I don't think any amount of chocolate hurts any person. Of course the cheaper grades of chocolate have a large percentage of sugar in them, and sugar is to a certain extent injurious, but for the chocolate itself I don't think any one eats enough to hurt him materially. In contradistinction to the exhilaration of alcoholic drinks chocolate seems to be a soothing. Persons who are nervous and irritable find it a food that in a way calms and soothes and satisfies them. It is queer, but it is the truth. The consumption of chocolate is increasing enormously in the United States."—New York Tribune.

Artificial Diamonds.

It is well known that in the manufacture of carbon steel microscopic diamonds are formed, and the curious fact is stated by The Scientific Press that from the examination of a number of steels from a variety of processes identical results were given. A piece weighing 300 grams was cut from a lump of steel and treated with nitric acid, the insoluble residue collected being mainly graphitic carbon. After being washed with water it was boiled three times with fuming nitric acid, which partially dissolved the residue, hydrofluoric acid and then fuming sulphuric being used, there then remaining nothing but graphite, which after being washed, was melted with chlorate of potash. The insoluble residue obtained fell to the bottom of a vessel filled with iodide of methylene, the lit-

He Could Shoot Straight.

Said the man who had traveled: "Years ago in a western frontier town a traveler, footsore and weary, arrived one afternoon and made his way down the one street of the burg. He was suddenly startled by the sounds of shots, and, looking up, discovered four men shooting at one another. The men were standing at the four corners of an imaginary square, and each was shooting at the man catcorner to him. Being in what he supposed a safe position, he paused to watch the outcome of the fray, when a bullet, going wide of its intended mark, cut by his ear. That roused his wrath, and, drawing his pistol, he dropped the man in his tracks who had all but dropped him. Another bullet flying wide from its mark, but near to the stranger, caused him to lay out one of the other pair, and the two remaining men sought safety in flight. In that particular town duels had been previously comparatively harmless amusements, owing to the poor marksmanship of the contestants, but the man who could shoot had arrived, and the inhabitants, although they turned out to greet him in a body and grant him the freedom of the city, did so in manifest awe and trepidation."

"Whenever he told the story afterward, he used to wind it up impressively by saying, 'And, boys, in that town after that they went around me as if I had been a swamp.'"—New York Tribune.

Conquered the Professor.

The mighty Jowett of Oxford invited a student to walk with him. After they had been on the road for about 30 minutes the pupil finally spunked up courage and remarked, "Nice day, professor."

"Do you really think so?" was the faraway answer of Jowett.

Another half hour passed, and the boy stammered out:

"Nice road, professor."

The teacher responded, "Do you really think so?"

The matriculate began to boil in his bones and to get even more frightened, but he managed to again blurt out, "Clouds seem to be filling up with rain, professor," to which the answer was:

"Do you really think so?"

The two returned to the college ground, and the professor said, "Well, young man, we have been walking for several hours, and everything you said has been as stupid as it possibly could be."

His companion replied, "Do you really think so?"

The professor looked at the young man a moment. Then he smiled and grasped his hands warmly. From that time on conversation never flagged during their walks.—Saturday Evening Post.

Puzzled the Porter.

The pet fad of a certain actress is shoes, and she never travels without a pair of shoe trees in her satchel. One season she was touring the west. When she went to bed in the Pullman the first night eastward from Butte, she took off her trim walking boots and, as her custom is, slipped the trees into them and set them under the edge of the berth. It was broad daylight when she was awakened by the respectful and somewhat awestricken voice of the porter. She drew the curtains aside and looked out into the aisle. The porter was standing there, holding the shoes in his hand.

"Here they is, lady," he said.

"Well, just put them down under the berth, please," said she. The man hesitated a moment.

"Can you—can you put them on by yourself?" he asked.

"What, the shoes?" asked the lady.

"No, miss," answered the porter. "I means your feet. Ain't these yere things feet?"

Since then she has carried the ghastly looking boot trees in her trunk.—Washington Post.

Doubling His Joy.

"Young man," said the girl's father, "do you realize that in asking for my daughter's hand in marriage you are asking me to give up my only child?"

"Excuse me, sir," replied the young man, "but you are evidently laboring under a misapprehension. I propose to come and live with you after we are married, and you will then have two children instead of one. Now, what more could you ask?"—Chicago News.

BROUGHT BACK OLD TIMES.

A Tidbit That Was Not on the Restaurant Bill of Fare.

The force of childhood recollections and the truth of the quotation, "A touch of nature makes the whole world akin," were shown graphically by a little incident in a restaurant the other day. A quiet looking, middle aged man of prosperous appearance was eating his dinner when another well dressed man took a seat opposite him. After giving his order in a bluff, genial manner the newcomer took a sip of water and faced around. Suddenly a queer expression came over his face as he watched attentively the actions of his vis-a-vis, and apparently without realizing what he was doing he blurted out in a loud tone, "Well, well, well!"

Every one at the table, including the quiet looking man, started, and the others, observing the direction of the speaker's gaze, turned their eyes also upon him of the quiet appearance to see what had caused the exclamation.

The man who had come in first was in the act of spreading sugar over a slice of buttered bread, and when he realized that all eyes were turned upon him he blushed like one detected in a heinous crime and almost fell off his chair. It took him a minute or two to recover, and then he said to the table in general:

"I used to get bread and butter and sugar for being good when I was a child, and eating it is a habit which I like to indulge in even yet. I know it isn't upon the restaurant bill of fare, but I couldn't resist the temptation."

"I must beg your pardon for my rude exclamation," replied the other man. "My mother used to put bread and butter and sugar in my lunchbox when I went to school as an 8-year-old up in the country town where I was raised, and I haven't eaten any since my childhood, and I guess I'll join you in a place now for the sake of old times." "You'll go away?" "Yes, sir."

"I wouldn't if I were you."

"But I will, and I defy you to prevent me. I have suffered at your hands as long as I can put up with it."

"Oh, I shan't try to stop you," he quietly replied. "I'll simply report to the police that my wife has mysteriously disappeared. They'll want your description, and I will give it. You wear No. 7 shoes; you have an extra large mouth; you walk stiff in your knees; your nose turns up at the end; eyes rather on the squint; voice like a—"

"Wretch! You wouldn't dare do that!" she screamed.

"I certainly will, and the description will go in all the papers."

They glared at each other a moment in silence. Then it was plain to be seen he had the dead wood on her.—Columbus Journal.

His Great Work.

A Chicago man who has written a book was telling about it the other day to a friend who had once done him a service.

"By the way," said the author, "I would be delighted to give you a copy of my work, if you care for it."

"I should be more than pleased to have it," was the reply, "especially if you will write your name in it."

"All right. There is a bookstore just around the corner. If you will accompany me, we will go there and get it. I don't happen to have a copy in my office just now."

After they had stopped to glance at some of the new things in the bookstore the author hailed a clerk and, pushing his chest out very far, asked for the novel that he had written.

"Yes, sir," the clerk said. "We have it around here somewhere, I believe, but you are the first one who has ever asked for a copy, and it may take me some time to find it. Wouldn't something else do just as well? We have a great many better books at the same price."—Chicago Times-Herald.

FACTS ABOUT SARDINES.

The Greater Part of This Country's Consumption Now Packed Here.

Formerly the sardines consumed in this country were all imported from France. Now about three-quarters of the sardines eaten in the United States are put up here, the chief center of the sardine industry in the United States being the eastern coast of Maine, though some sardines are now put up on the coast of California. The packing of sardines in this country was begun about 1886.

Thousands of people now find employment in one part and another of the work in catching fish, in making cans and in canning and packing and marketing and so on.

Sardines are put up in greater variety than formerly, there being now sardines packed in tomato sauce, sardines in mustard, spiced sardines and so on, but the great bulk of sardines, both imported and domestic, are still put up in oil. Sardines are put up also in a greater variety of packages than formerly, there being, for example, various sizes and shapes of oval tins, and some French sardines are imported in glass, but as the great bulk of all sardines are still put up in oil, so the great bulk of them are still put up in the familiar flat boxes, the great majority of these being of the sizes known as halves and quarters and far the greater number of these being in quarters. Sardines are packed 100 tins in a case, and the consumption of sardines in this country is roughly estimated at from 1,500,000 to 2,000,000 cases annually.

Like canned goods of every description, sardines are cheaper now than they formerly were, and American sardines are sold for less than the imported. American sardines are now exported from this country to the West Indies and to South America.—New York Sun.

CHOCOLATE FIENDS.

There Are Those Who Become Slaves to This Nerve Soothing Food.

"The manufacture of chocolate," said J. R. Anso of Brazil, "is a great industry. Of all the chocolate beans imported into the United States two-thirds go to one firm in Boston, and the other third is distributed among the other manufacturers. The chocolates sold are of various grades. The Caracas chocolate is supposed to be the best."

"If you take the various grades, technically known as the Caracas, the French, the German and so on, and take a piece of each and place them in a pan of water and allow them to dissolve, any expert will tell you which is the best chocolate. The better grades will leave no sediment. The others will. This is explained by the fact that in the cheaper grades the shell is ground up and used as a 'filler.' The lighter the chocolate the better the grade. The cheaper grades are dark owing to the ground up shell."

"It is a queer thing about chocolate consumption. There are chocolate fiends, just as there are opium fiends, tobacco slaves and liquor slaves. I cannot tell you why it is, but if people begin to eat chocolate the habit grows upon them. I don't think any amount of chocolate hurts any person. Of course the cheaper grades of chocolate have a large percentage of sugar in them, and sugar is to a certain extent injurious, but for the chocolate itself I don't think any one eats enough to hurt him materially. In contradistinction to the exhilaration of alcoholic drinks chocolate seems to be a soother. Persons who are nervous and irritable find it a food that in a way calms and soothes and satisfies them. It is queer, but it is the truth. The consumption of chocolate is increasing enormously in the United States."—New York Tribune.

Artificial Diamonds.

It is well known that in the manufacture of carbon steel microscopic diamonds are formed, and the curious fact is stated by The Scientific Press that from the examination of a number of steels from a variety of processes identical results were given. A piece weighing 300 grams was cut from a lump of steel and treated with nitric acid, the insoluble residue collected being mainly graphic carbon. After being washed with water it was boiled three times with fuming nitric acid, which partially dissolved the residue, hydrofluoric acid and then fuming sulphuric being used, there then remaining nothing but graphite, which after being washed, was melted with chlorate of potash. The insoluble residue obtained fell to the bottom of a vessel filled with iodide of methylene, the lit-

He Could Shoot Straight.

Said the man who had traveled: "Years ago in a western frontier town a traveler, footsore and weary, arrived one afternoon and made his way down the one street of the burg. He was suddenly startled by the sounds of shots, and, looking up, discovered four men shooting at one another. The men were standing at the four corners of an imaginary square, and each was shooting at the man catcorner to him. Being in what he supposed a safe position, he paused to watch the outcome of the fray, when a bullet, going wide of its intended mark, cut by his ear. That roused his wrath, and, drawing his pistol, he dropped the man in his tracks who had all but dropped him. Another bullet flying wide from its mark, but near to the stranger, caused him to lay out one of the other pair, and the two remaining men sought safety in flight. In that particular town duels had been previously comparatively harmless amusements, owing to the poor marksmanship of the contestants, but the man who could shoot had arrived, and the inhabitants, although they turned out to greet him in a body and grant him the freedom of the city, did so in manifest awe and trepidation."

"Whenever he told the story afterward, he used to wind it up impressively by saying, 'And, boys, in that town after that they went around me as if I had been a swamp.'"—New York Tribune.

Conquered the Professor.

The mighty Jowett of Oxford invited a student to walk with him. After they had been on the road for about 30 minutes the pupil finally spunked up courage and remarked, "Nice day, professor."

"Do you really think so?" was the faraway answer of Jowett.

Another half hour passed, and the boy stammered out:

"Nice road, professor."

The teacher responded, "Do you really think so?"

The matriculate began to boil in his bones and to get even more frightened, but he managed to again blurt out, "Clouds seem to be filling up with rain, professor," to which the answer was:

"Do you really think so?"

The two returned to the college ground, and the professor said, "Well, young man, we have been walking for several hours, and everything you said has been as stupid as it possibly could be."

His companion replied, "Do you really think so?"

The professor looked at the young man a moment. Then he smiled and grasped his hands warmly. From that time on conversation never flagged during their walks.—Saturday Evening Post.

Puzzled the Porter.

The pet fad of a certain actress is shoes, and she never travels without a pair of shoe trees in her satchel. One season she was touring the west. When she went to bed in the Pullman the first night eastward from Butte, she took off her trim walking boots and, as her custom is, slipped the trees into them and set them under the edge of the berth. It was broad daylight when she was awakened by the respectful and somewhat awestricken voice of the porter. She drew the curtains aside and looked out into the aisle. The porter was standing there, holding the shoes in his hand.

"Here they is, lady," he said.

"Well, just put them down under the berth, please," said she. The man hesitated a moment.

"Can you—can you put them on by yourself?" he asked.

"What, the shoes?" asked the lady.

"No, miss," answered the porter. "I means your feet. Ain't these yere things feet?"

Since then she has carried the ghastly looking boot trees in her trunk.—Washington Post.

Doubtful His Joy.

"Young man," said the girl's father, "do you realize that in asking for my daughter's hand in marriage you are asking me to give up my only child?"

CRONJE'S SPACE CUT DOWN.

The Shropshires Managed to Take 200 Yards From Him Had to Crawl on Ground Into Trenches.

PAARDEBERG, Orange Free State, Feb. 25.—Artillery shelling continued during the early part of Wednesday night. As soon as the last gun was fired the Shropshires, who had been occupying the river bed since Sunday, rushed forward, seized an additional 200 yards of near ground and entrenched a fresh position before daybreak. At dawn General Cronje found himself docked that amount of space. The Shropshires had done excellent work under a galling fire since Sunday and they were relieved by the Gordons.

The exchange of positions had its amusing features, in spite of the danger. The Gordons crawled on their stomachs to the trenches and the Shropshires crept out of these by actually reaching over the Gordons.

The scene of the last five days' fighting is one of the prettiest spots in South Africa. The river at the point where General Cronje is ensconced and fighting for life resembles some parts of the Hudson river, the ground all around sloping toward the stream. All the highlands are covered by the British artillery.

Cronje is faced in the front and rear from both banks by the British, while General French's horse, far away on the flanks, prevents a sudden inrush of Boers.

General French has sent in 75 prisoners. A British patrol, eight miles to the west, discovered 80 Boers wandering away and corralled them. Already this force has captured 46 of the enemy, while many dead Boers have been seen.

The Boer prisoners are all depressed at the present course of the war, and they comment bitterly upon General Cronje's persistence, which they call "murder."

A German ambulance attached to the Boer forces was allowed to traverse the British lines in front of Jacobsdal.

Quantities of cattle, sheep and trek oxen have been captured while wandering from the Boer laager.

LONDON, Feb. 26.—3:55 p. m.—Lord Roberts has sent the following additional advices to the war office:

"PAARDEBERG, Saturday afternoon, Feb. 24.—Methuen reports that Barkley West was occupied by our troops on Feb. 22. The loyal inhabitants displayed great enthusiasm.

"The country west of the railway from Cape Town to Kimberley is gradually settling down. A detachment has started from De Aar for Britstown and Douglas and Prieska will shortly be visited by our troops.

"Methuen's account of the admirable manner in which the Kimberley hospital is managed, made one desire to send some of our sick and wounded there."

BULLER FIGHTING HARD.

Attempting to Take Grobler's Kloof—Within 300 Yards of the Boer Trenches.

COLENSO, Natal, Feb. 26.—The Boers, who had been reinforced, made a stand on Thursday at Grobler's kloof and on a range of hills running east. They had been forced from all their positions on the right.

General Lyttleton's division, on Thursday, advanced under cover of the kopjes. The Boers fired a Crenzett and "Long Tom." The British artillery was well sheltered in the action at daybreak and until late in the afternoon, when a heavy rifle fire on both sides developed.

The British infantry had advanced about a mile and a half, and a continuous fire was kept up until after dark. The Boers snuck to their positions. The British artillery fire was irregular. A few salvoes were sent toward the thickly wooded spots and ravines, from which the Boer fire was heaviest.

The Boers sent shells into the headquarters baggage, close to the hospital, but no material damage was done. General Wynne was slightly wounded.

The Boer positions are not considered strong, with the exception of Grobler's Kloof. The hills eastward are not so high, and cannot be entrenched so well as the mountains, which the British have taken.

Early on Friday a severe rifle fire was resumed on the right and front, from the positions held over night, by both sides. The British naval guns, howitzers, mountain and field batteries shelled the Boer trenches incessantly. The Boers replied with two heavy guns, some of their shells bursting over the hospital. As a result the British wounded were removed.

During the afternoon the Fifth brigade, the Inniskillings and Dublins leading, began to advance up the hills. In spite of the constant shelling, the Boers stood up in their trenches, aiming deliberately down the hills.

The infantry advance was further covered by parties, on the right and left, firing volleys. It was slow, the British taking advantage of every bit of natural cover. The Boers on the crests of the hills as well as from the trenches part of the way down poured lead along the advancing line.

At dark the British infantry had reached within a few hundred yards of the first line of Boer trenches.

MRS. SARTORIS BETTER.

Convalescing From an Operation She Had Performed—Statement by Physician.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—The following statement relative to the condition of Mrs. Nellie Grant Sartoris was given out by the attending physicians:

"Mrs. Nellie Grant Sartoris is now convalescing from an operation, and will be about in a few days. On account of publications that her malady was cancer, we state that after the operation an examination has proved that there is no evidence that cancer has ever existed."

YELLOW FEVER NOT EXPECTED.

Cubans Protesting Against Quarantine Commencing April 1.

SANTIAGO, Feb. 26.—The announcement by the officers of the marine hospital service that quarantine regulations will be put into force on April 1 led to a special meeting of the chamber of commerce, at which a committee was appointed to draw up resolutions protesting against this as an unnecessary precaution, as yellow fever has rarely, if ever, appeared here before the middle of May.

Moreover, it is pointed out that the sanitary department is so efficient that, in the opinion of experts, an outbreak of yellow fever this year is highly improbable.

MGR. SBARRETTI IN HAVANA.

The New Bishop Peaceably Received by Cubans.

HAVANA, Feb. 26.—The conduct of the Cuban people during the celebration of Independence day is favorably commented upon by the local papers. The fact that Monsignor Sbarretti's arrival in spite of the many protests against his appointment was treated with respect, and the fact that Spanish, American and Cuban flags waved side by side unmolested and harmoniously were surprises for many. General Wood got General Gomez to pacify the people, who didn't want a foreigner for bishop.

STUDENTS' MISSIONARY ASSOCIATION

Theological Seminary at Philadelphia Selected For Next Meeting Place.

GAMBIER, O., Feb. 26.—The students' missionary association of the Protestant Episcopal church selected for the place of its next annual convention the theological seminary at Philadelphia.

The executive committee for the ensuing year is said to be John W. Wood, of New York; Silas McBee, of Swanne, Tenn., and Robert L. Paddock, of Virginia. C. W. Owen, of Trinity, university, Toronto, was elected vice president, while the president and secretary are to be by the Philadelphia chapter of the association.

Killed Employer's Wife and Suicided.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Mrs. Mamie Hayes was murdered in her sleeping apartment in the Hotel Endicott by Dr. Franklin L. Caldwell, who then shot and killed himself. The woman was shot in the head. Caldwell was employed as an assistant by Dr. Ephraim H. Hayes, husband of the dead woman. It was said he was infatuated with the woman, who had repulsed him time and again. Her husband had befriended him. It was believed he also planned to kill her husband.

Nine Were Ordained.

LANCASTER, Pa., Feb. 26.—In Bethany church Bishop Stanford preached the ordination sermon to the nine applicants who were given deacons' and elders' orders by the east Pennsylvania conference of the United Evangelical church. The ordination was performed Sunday afternoon by the bishop, assisted by the three presiding elders, B. J. Smoyer, C. S. Hanna and P. E. Urban.

Weldon Stricken With Paralysis.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 26.—Harry Weldon, for 20 years the sporting editor of the Cincinnati Enquirer, was stricken with paralysis here. The stroke does not affect his brain. He is perfectly conscious, but is unable to speak. The stroke seems to affect chiefly his vocal organs and the right arm and leg. His physician says his chances for recovery are good.

Ferraro May Die Today.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Everything is in readiness for the execution of Antonio Ferraro in the electric chair at Sing Sing, probably today, the execution being set for some time this week. Ferraro, contrary to expectations, has resigned himself to his fate. On April 4, 1898, in a fight with a fellow countryman, named Lucino Muchin, in Brooklyn, Ferraro cut his opponent's throat with a razor, killing him instantly.

MRS. SARTORIS BETTER.

Convalescing From an Operation She Had Performed—Statement by Physician.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—The following statement relative to the condition of Mrs. Nellie Grant Sartoris was given out by the attending physicians:

"Mrs. Nellie Grant Sartoris is now convalescing from an operation, and will be about in a few days. On account of publications that her malady was cancer, we state that after the operation an examination has proved that there is no evidence that cancer has ever existed."

YELLOW FEVER NOT EXPECTED.

Cubans Protesting Against Quarantine Commencing April 1.

SANTIAGO, Feb. 26.—The announcement by the officers of the marine hospital service that quarantine regulations will be put into force on April 1 led to a special meeting of the chamber of commerce, at which a committee was appointed to draw up resolutions protesting against this as an unnecessary precaution, as yellow fever has rarely, if ever, appeared here before the middle of May.

Moreover, it is pointed out that the sanitary department is so efficient that, in the opinion of experts, an outbreak of yellow fever this year is highly improbable.

MGR. SBARRETTI IN HAVANA.

The New Bishop Peaceably Received by Cubans.

HAVANA, Feb. 26.—The conduct of the Cuban people during the celebration of Independence day is favorably commented upon by the local papers. The fact that Monsignor Sbarretti's arrival in spite of the many protests against his appointment was treated with respect, and the fact that Spanish, American and Cuban flags waved side by side unmoled and harmoniously were surprises for many. General Wood got General Gomez to pacify the people, who didn't want a foreigner for bishop.

STUDENTS' MISSIONARY ASSOCIATION

Theological Seminary at Philadelphia Selected For Next Meeting Place.

GAMBIER, O., Feb. 26.—The students' missionary association of the Protestant Episcopal church selected for the place of its next annual convention the theological seminary at Philadelphia.

The executive committee for the ensuing year is said to be John W. Wood, of New York; Silas McBee, of Swannee, Tenn.; and Robert L. Paddock, of Virginia. C. W. Owen, of Trinity, university, Toronto, was elected vice president, while the president and secretary are to be by the Philadelphia chapter of the association.

Killed Employer's Wife and Suicided.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Mrs. Mamie Hayes was murdered in her sleeping apartment in the Hotel Endicott by Dr. Franklin L. Caldwell, who then shot and killed himself. The woman was shot in the head. Caldwell was employed as an assistant by Dr. Ephraim H. Hayes, husband of the dead woman. It was said he was infatuated with the woman, who had repulsed him time and again. Her husband had befriended him. It was believed he also planned to kill her husband.

Nine Were Ordained.

LANCASTER, Pa., Feb. 26.—In Bethany church Bishop Stanford preached the ordination sermon to the nine applicants who were given deacons' and elders' orders by the east Pennsylvania conference of the United Evangelical church. The ordination was performed Sunday afternoon by the bishop, assisted by the three presiding elders, B. J. Smoyer, C. S. Hanna and P. E. Urban.

Weldon Stricken With Paralysis.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 26.—Harry Weldon, for 20 years the sporting editor of the Cincinnati Enquirer, was stricken with paralysis here. The stroke does not affect his brain. He is perfectly conscious, but is unable to speak. The stroke seems to affect chiefly his vocal organs and the right arm and leg. His physician says his chances for recovery are good.

Ferraro May Die Today.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Everything is in readiness for the execution of Antonio Ferraro in the electric chair at Sing Sing, probably today, the execution being set for some time this week. Ferraro, contrary to expectations, has resigned himself to his fate. On April 4, 1898, in a fight with a fellow countryman, named Lucino Muchin, in Brooklyn, Ferraro cut his opponent's throat with a razor, killing him instantly.

UNION LABELS

It should be a deep-rooted principle of all union workmen and union sympathizers and particularly those members of the different organizations of East Liverpool, to buy nothing but Union Label goods, in preference to all others. And why not? If we ask fair wages for our labor, why should we buy goods made at unfair wages by others?

The Union Label in every industry is a guarantee of fair wages, decent working hours, and union labor employed.

UNION PAPERS.

All Union papers of East Liverpool are down to the various craft and unions of the city by the printing of the above Union Labels at the head of their columns.

PATRONIZE UNION CLEANS.

Members of the I. O. O. F. A. M. show this card. Ask for it when making your purchases.

UNION MADE BOOTS AND SHOES.

The Boot and Shoe Workers' union is the national head of the trade, and is a new combination of all the branches of boot and shoe workers. The above trade-mark when found on the sole or lining of a boot or shoe, is a guarantee that the same is made by union labor. Look for the above design stamped on the sole of every pair of boots or shoes you buy.

CUSTOM TAILORS' LABEL.

The Journeymen Tailor's Label is to be found in the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the under side of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants. It is printed in black ink on white linen.

UNION MADE CLOTHES.

You will find the linen label attached by machine stitching to the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the inside of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants.

BICYCLE LABEL.

"Do unto others as ye would that others should do unto you." You will endorse the "Golden Rule" by buying and riding bicycles bearing this Label. The colors are as follows: The Union shield is in red, white and blue, on a background of pea green, bordered by gold.

The Label will be placed on the upper front side of the tire that receives the seat post.

UNION BREAD AND CRACKERS.

This is a full size facsimile of the Label of the Bakers' and Confectioners' union. It is printed on fine white paper and is pasted on each loaf of union-made bread. It is an evidence that the bread is made under fair and wholesome conditions, and in clean and healthy bakeries. Following is the confectioners' and cracker Label:

Willis Bixby was found sleeping under a freight car Saturday night. The switch engine was doing some work in the lower yards and Bixby was run in to prevent all chance of his being killed. He had $30.22 in his pockets and the mayor took charge of $9.60 of it.

Yesterday Officer White was called upon to settle a dispute between the mate and two deckhands of the towboat D. B. Wood. The dispute was settled by the deckhands getting their wages, $22 each, and taking the Ben Hur for Pittsburg.

At 10 o'clock this morning fire was discovered in a store room out West Market street, occupied as a warehouse by a huckster named Todd. An over heated stove was the cause, which set fire to the wall. The damage was slight, as the flames were extinguished with a babcock.

Waiting to Be Eaten.

The wasp is not a vegetarian, like the bee, and so the wasp mother has before her the problem of supporting her young with meat. As her eggs are laid out in hot weather and as food enough must be stored in the cell with the egg to mature the young insects, the question is how to preserve the meat fresh for so long a time.

After a tube is finished except one end, which is left open, she flies off on a hunt for spiders. She finds a fat, healthy one, pounces upon it, stings it, carries it off and places it in the mud cell. She repeats this process until she has placed as many spiders in the tube as, according to her judgment, will be needed. She then lays an egg in the cell and walls up the opening.

Whether it is the result of a subtle poison or whether it is a special spot in the spider's nervous system where the sting is inserted we do not know, but certain it is that after being thus stung the spider lives on in a paralyzed condition for weeks and even months. It can move only slightly and remains helpless in its mud sepulcher until the wasp egg hatches into a voracious grub, which at once falls to and eats with great relish the meat thus miraculously preserved.

Whether the spider can feel pain in this paralyzed state is not known, but it certainly retains its sight and so watches the wasp grub growing, and a spider's natural fear of a wasp would cause ample suffering to atone for its own onslaught on flies.

Peter Cooper Met the Spirits.

During Peter Cooper's lifetime he was a frequent visitor at the home of S. J. Pardessus, on Pacific street, Brooklyn.

At one time Mr. Cooper became greatly interested in the spirit manifestations of the Fox sisters and was anxious to investigate their rappings personally, but he did not like to attend one of their public seances, for he feared recognition and consequently a great deal of talk. Finally it was arranged that one of the sisters should spend a night at Mr. Pardessus' house and the doughty Peter be invited to meet her.

Miss Fox came, and the spirits came too. The family retired early, Mr. Cooper occupying a bedroom on the opposite side of the hall from that of the fair ally of the supernatural. He was just settling himself comfortably for "a long winter's nap" when a rapping began on the headboard of his bed which sent shivers to his very marrow. It was only the beginning of a "rat, tat, tat," that kept up at intervals during the night in all parts of the room, and before daylight came Mr. Cooper had listened to enough spirits to last him a lifetime. He never said much about the experience, but he never asked to have it repeated.—New York Mail and Express.

Don't Give Up the Ship.

Somewhat more than 50 years ago it happened to me to meet at the house of a mutual friend a daughter of the late Major Benjamin Russell, for many years editor of the Boston Centinel. She was a bright, interesting woman and a brilliant raconteur, and she told me a number of anecdotes of her father, who was a strongly individualized and notable character for a good many years. Among them was the following:

The battle between the Chesapeake and the Shannon took place just off the Massachusetts coast, and a sailor in some way got ashore and hurried to Boston with the news. It was in the night, and he went straight to The Centinel office, where he found Major Russell, to whom he told the story, including the death of Lawrence.

"What were his last words?" said the major.

"Don't know," said the man. "Didn't he say, 'Don't give up the ship?'"

"Don't know," said the man. "Oh, he did!" said the major. "I'll make him say it." And he did—so much for history.—Hartford Courant.

The Thistle of Scotland.

Once upon a time many hundred years ago the Danes made war upon the Scots and invaded their country. One dark night, as they were marching upon an encampment of sleeping Scots, one of their number trod upon a thistle. The pain was so sudden and intense that the man gave a loud cry. This awakened the slumbering Scots, who sprang to arms and defeated the assailants. In gratitude for the deliverance the Scots made the thistle their national emblem.—Journal of Education.
